

Corsicana Precinct
Population 26,858
1930 Census

Corsicana Weekly Light

Navarro County
Population 60,494
1930 Census

VOL. XLVII.

FULL LEASED WIRE ASSOCIATED PRESS SERVICE

CORSICANA, TEXAS, TUESDAY, JANUARY 19, 1932.

NO. 12.

APPROPRIATION BILL CRASHED VAST MISSISSIPPI AREA UNDER WATER

RESCUE MAROONED THOUSANDS BY FLOOD NOW IN PROGRESS

NO LOSS OF LIFE IN MISSISSIPPI FLOOD BUT WATERS SPREAD OUT

GLENDORA, Miss., Jan. 18. (P)—The far-flung flood in the Tallahatchie, Coldwater and Yazoo river valleys spread through eight Mississippi counties today and threatened to invade two others.

Property damage was roughly estimated at $200,000 as the inland sea extends itself from Lambert, in Quitman county, to Belzoni in Humphreys county, a distance of 125 miles wherein levees are strained and broken.

Even below Belzoni, Red Cross and other relief agencies are carrying aid to families forced out of lowlands by the Yazoo flood about Eden, Panola, Quitman, Tallahatchie, LeFlore, Humphreys and Yazoo counties form the major flood zone but backwaters are spreading into northeastern Sunflower county and a small area of northwestern Holmes county and threaten to invade Sharkey and Issaquena counties.

The western side of Tallahatchie county, the main flood area for nearly five weeks, today was experiencing a fall in the water level, but on the eastern side four major breaks in the abandoned levees endangered the lives of hundreds of residents.

Another main levee broke last night on the west bank of the Tallahatchie river in Quitman county causing a hurried flight of residents for miles.

Approximately 30,000 acres of land, which previously had escaped the flood in eastern and southern Quitman county, were inundated last night, adding to the 325,000 acres already under water.

GLENDORA, Miss., Jan. 18. (P)—Scores of boats charged through the flooded Tippo Basin today in a "big push" to rescue some 2,000 refugees waterbound by the crumbling of levees on the Tallahatchie river.

New breaks of the past have virtually inundated the entire basin district.

For a stretch of 200 miles through parts of Panola, Quitman, Tallahatchie, LeFlore and Humphreys counties, the river has defeated labors of levee patchers and the lands on the east side of the Tallahatchie are under water.

In the Matthew Bayou drainage district, officials have abandoned

Hoover, Coolidge And Franklin Are Quoted on Thrift

(By The Associated Press).
Thrift, Thrift, Thrift!
Today is National Thrift Day of the National Thrift Week. It is the commencement of the national thrift committee announcements as a concentrated period for preaching of the gospel of frugality without parsimony and expenditure with discretion.

President Hoover said: "Thrift is not hoarding. It is the wise provision against future needs."

A year ago Calvin Coolidge said: "Above all, a wise thrift calls for the expenditure of money to save people."

And Benjamin Franklin, whose name has long been associated with thrift, said: "It is hard for an empty bag to stand upright."

"A man may, if he knows not how to save as he gets, keep his nose to the grindstone."

MELLON'S ANSWER TO PATMAN CHARGES CONCLUDED MONDAY

WASHINGTON, Jan. 18. (P)—Secretary Mellon's answer to imputation charges was concluded before the house judiciary committee today but they were renewed immediately by his accuser, Representative Wright Patman of Texas.

Alexander W. Gregg, representing the secretary of treasury, made a sweeping disavowal of all the charges, submitted to questions by committee members and indicated his willingness to be questioned by Patman.

Such procedure, however, was ruled out of order by Chairman Sumner of the committee.

Representative Dyer, Missouri, republican, it was agreed, however, that Patman might suggest questions to committee members for pronouncing on.

Before he left the stand, Gregg was directed to supply a list of the present holders of the bank stock Mellon sold when appointed secretary. He demurred, however, to a suggestion that all Mellon's holdings be presented and the request was not pressed.

Putman, who will continue tomorrow, renewed his charges Mellon "brought pressure to obtain the Barco concession in Colombia for the Gulf Oil Company after admitting he was without proof. Mellon had denied discussing the concession with President Hoover and address of a credit extension to that republic with bankers."

GOVERNOR MURRAY TALKS OF FITNESS OF SEVERAL DEMOCRATIC POSSIBILITIES

WASHINGTON, Jan. 18. (P)—In town on entirely different business, Governor "Alfalfa Bill" Murray of Oklahoma last night gave the lowdown on most of the Democratic political possibilities except himself.

As for his own possibility, observed the governor: "A newspaperman ought to be a gentleman and not ask any more questions when a man doesn't want to answer."

This lesson in courtesy to a roomful of reporters came from the Oklahoma governor along with epigrammatic observations on war debts, foreign loans, disarmament, the Democratic platform, League of Nations and water power.

Besides all this, he observed: "Nothing is more important to civilization than family or home. Every man should fall in love with one woman, marry her and own a home."

He came to Washington to appear before the house ways and means committee on tax matters and to address the Anti-Saloon League convention tonight.

Governor Roosevelt of New York he found unable to meet the presidential standard Murray set, a man who would have the court of a circuit court of appeals. Owen D. Young was "unthinkable as the head of our great monopoly." He expressed himself before on Alfred E. Smith, and on William Henry Murray.

A cigar in one hand a coffee cup in another, the governor brought an unusual touch to committee atmosphere as he advocated banking reform before the house ways and means committee.

Representative Patman of Texas, who has brought impeachment charges against Secretary Mellon, renewed them in a committee room after a Mellon representative had finished a general denial of the allegations.

Renewed criticism of short selling on the cotton and grain exchanges accompanied hearings before the house agriculture committee.

(Continued on page 7.)

RETALIATION FOR VICTORIES OF LAST WEEK IS REPORTED

CHINESE WAR LORDS GATHER AT MUKDEN FOR ESTABLISHMENT NEW STATE

BY GLENN BABB.
Copyright, 1932, By The Associated Press.

MUKDEN, Manchuria, Jan. 18. (P)—Hundreds of Chinese have paid with their lives, Japanese official communiques said today, for the victories they won last week when Japanese casualties ran high.

The communiques told a grim tale of the crashing of the Japanese mailed fist in retaliation, wounding all the most destructive engines of modern war. The announcements were made almost simultaneously with the arrival here of the advance guard of the new groups of Chinese war lords under whom it is proposed to erect a new Manchurian empire.

General Shigeru Honjo, Japanese commander, drove his retaliatory thrusts at several widely-separated points in South Manchuria. In two battles at Yentai and Tungling at least 200 Chinese were known to have been killed and the communiques said "a considerable number" were slain at Yingking in a third battle. These were only the three most important clashes listed in the announcements.

One Japanese officer was killed and three men wounded in the Yingking battle.

The largest of yesterday's battles was at Yentai, a coal mining center 25 miles south of here. A Japanese infantry battalion using machine guns, artillery and airplanes clashed with 500 Chinese. The fighting lasted 40 minutes. The first official report said Chinese were "almost completely annihilated."

First of the Chinese war lords to arrive for the conference on formation of a new state was Chang Hai-Peng, who tried and failed to oust General Ma Chanshan from Taisiash before General Jiro Tamon undertook and accomplished the task.

TOKYO, Jan. 18. (P)—Japan will reply next week to overtures from Moscow in connection with a proposed pact of non-aggression, it was announced today.

It was generally accepted that Japan will reply in substance that Japan sees no necessity for such a treaty, particularly in view of the understanding it would be like the Franco-Russian agreement which the Japanese believe would constitute a military alliance.

In some official quarters it is contended an entente with Russia would be more or less a liability to Japan; that an agreement of non-aggression would be a hindrance to the benefits and perhaps open a way to growth of a Russian market in China to the detriment of Japan.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 18. (P)—Firmly aligned behind a policy of no retreat on prohibition and its enforcement, the Anti-Saloon League devoted today to hearing a long list of speakers, among them Bishop James Cannon, Jr., "Church and Government" was the topic chosen by this outstanding.

(Continued on Page 2)

RUTH JUDD READY FACE JURORS FOR DEATH TWO WOMEN

THREATENS "TELL EVERYTHING" IS PLANS DON'T WORK OUT

PHOENIX, Ariz., Jan. 18. (P)—Revealing the defense will continue its attack with a plea of not guilty by reason of insanity, attorneys for 27-year-old Winnie Ruth Judd held their final conference today on the eve of the opening of her murder trial.

The slender, suburban-looking office worker is charged with the murder of her two former friends and roommates, Agnes Le Roi and Hedvig Samuelson, whose bodies were sent in trunks to Los Angeles.

It will be an all-man jury to whom the story of the slayings will be told since women do not sit on juries in Arizona.

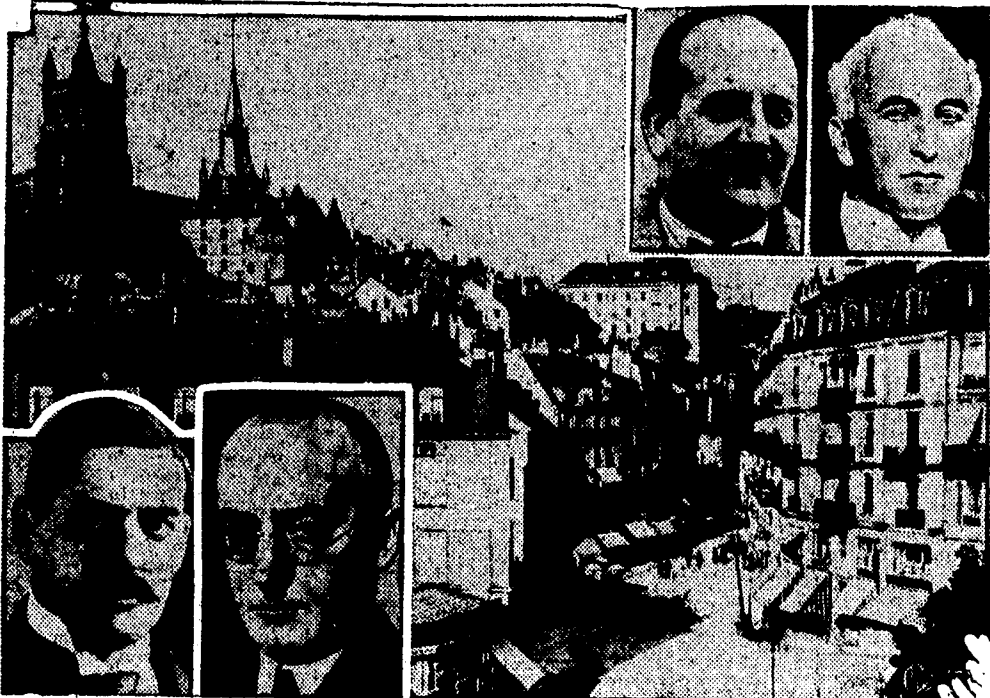

Attorney for Mrs. Judd, wife of Dr. W. C. Judd, Los Angeles physician, worked behind closed doors today. They have summoned three psychiatrists in addition to several witnesses from various points in Indiana and Illinois where Mrs. Judd and her relatives formerly resided.

The attorneys said, however, they had not abandoned the plea of self defense as a motive for the slayings and will offer testimony which will seek to show that Mrs. Judd killed the two women last October to save her own life.

Mrs. Judd's story of the slayings was that she shot the two women in self defense as the climax

(Continued on Page 5)

Reparations Rendezvous and Principals

ANTI-SALOONERS TO HEAR CANNON AND GOV. MURRAY

ANNOUNCE OPPOSITION TO ALL MODIFICATIONS OF PROHIBITION

WASHINGTON, Jan. 18. (P)—A declaration that "we have a convinced and sincere dry in the White House" brought delegates to the Anti-Saloon League's biennial meeting to their feet today with an outburst of cheering.

The Rev. John M. Phillips of Hartford, Conn., made the statement.

"There are enough people in the United States to see that we do not have anything else but a convinced and sincere dry there," Phillips added.

He assailed Senator Bingham, Republican, Connecticut, the author of a bill to legalize beer and said:

"If anybody can make the wet side look ridiculous, Senator Bingham will. There is a great sentiment in Connecticut that all Sons of the Wild Jackasses do not come from west of the Mississippi."

He called the Crusaders, an anti-prohibition organization, "The Knights of Malt and Eourbon" and called on the league to redouble efforts to educate the youth of America against liquor use.

"But we can hold the fort until the Dupont brothers and John J. Raskob get tired of throwing their money away," he said.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 18. (P)—Firmly aligned behind a policy of no retreat on prohibition and its enforcement, the Anti-Saloon League devoted today to hearing a long list of speakers, among them Bishop James Cannon, Jr., "Church and Government" was the topic chosen by this outstanding.

(Continued on Page 2)

Man and Child Dead As Result Auto Collision

LUBBOCK, Jan. 18. (P)—Two persons, Cynthia Ann Reed, 5, and Roy Shipp, 22, died and four other persons were injured as a result of a head-on collision of two automobiles late yesterday.

The child, daughter of Louis B. Reed, prominent Lamesa attorney, and Mrs. Reed was dead when pulled from the wreckage.

Ship, of Higginbotham community, near Lamesa, died in a hospital Sunday night.

Drivers of the automobiles, a light sedan and a small coupe, were R. D. Kirk, county attorney, and Don M. Burkett, living six and a half miles south of Lamesa.

Kirk was accompanied by his wife, their two small children, Mr. and Mrs. Reed and their child. Shipp was with Burkett.

From the Higginbotham community, near Lamesa, died in a hospital Sunday night.

Funeral arrangements for the child and young man had not been completed this morning. Dawson county officers were investigating the crash.

DECEMBER WEATHER 8-YEAR PERIOD SHOWS TEMPERATURE VARIES VERY SMALL DEGREE

A perusal of the records of the U. S. weather bureau here reveals freakish weather from time to time since the records have been kept. One reading will find almost summer temperatures recorded and the next day the thermometer will be flirting with zero.

As an illustration of the high and low, the high reading on Dec. 19, 1924, the high reading was 78 and the low 14, a drop of 64 degrees during that 24 hour period, and perhaps within a few hours as the high point reached could have been late in the afternoon.

Taken year in and year out the general average is about the same as will be seen by the following data compiled from December records for the past eight years.

The average high reading for December 1931 was 59.06 and the average low 41.23 which was 43.84 degrees above the general average of 35.89 for the eight year period. The average high for the eight year period was 59.20 and for the past December 59.06 a difference of only .14 of a degree.

Highest Temperature. The highest reading for the past December was on the 30th when the mercury reached 76 degrees. A reading of 75 was made on December 24 and on Christmas Day the high point was 69. The low for the month was 31 and the reading was on the 15th, the only time the thermometer went below the freezing point during the month.

In December 1930 the high and low readings were 58.22 and 26.80 with an average of 47.51; in 1929 the readings were 57.45 and 37.93 and the average 47.69; the 1928 average was 58.90, 35.16 and 42.05 for the high, low and average respectively.

Average High. In 1927 the average high for the month of December was 58.80, then 57.16 and the average 46.95; in 1926 they were 62.80, 38.67 and 50.73; in 1925, 58.06, 34.38 and 46.22 and in 1924 they were 60.32, 35.83 and 48.08.

From these figures it will be observed that December 1928 was the warmest in the eight year period with an average high of 62.80 as compared with the general average of 59.20 for the period.

The lowest reading in December for the entire eight year period was nine degrees above zero and made December 22 and 23, 1929, and the highest temperature recorded in any December during the period was 86 and was made on December 16, 1924. A reading of 85 was made the following day.

Readings in the 70's were common in every December during the time except in 1930 when the highest point recorded was 68 and was made on December 2.

BORDER OFFICERS WATCHING CLOSELY MEXICAN RAIDERS

AMERICAN OFFICERS ROUTED BY LARGE MOUNTED FORCE SATURDAY NIGHT

McALLEN, Tex., Jan. 18. (P)—Border authorities maintained a close watch today for a Mexican band which routed three American officers after a gun fight in which one Mexican was killed and two others wounded.

Five border patrol inspectors lay in wait Saturday night after having received a tip that Mexican horse thieves planned to cross the Rio Grande at Devil's Pass, south of here, for a raid on the American side.

The American officers saw a small boat, manned by three men, put out from the Texas bank. The border patrolmen said they called on the men to halt and the Mexicans answered by opening fire. The Americans replied with their guns, sinking the boat, killing Toribio Ganzaes, 25, and wounding his two companions, who swam the bank and disappeared.

As a large force of Mexican horsemen gathered on the other side of the stream and prepared to cross, two of the inspectors went for reinforcements. They hastened back but were met some distance from the pass by the other patrolmen, who said they were forced to withdraw as the heavily-armed Mexicans closed in. A large number of officers searched up and down the river but did not find any of the night riders.

Authorities were of the opinion the Mexicans were led by a notorious border bandit whose band crossed the river last Tuesday, terrorized the village of Tabasco, west of McAllen, and stole several head of livestock.

State Defends Auto Tax Law; Claimed Boon

HOUSTON, Jan. 18. (P)—The state, defending a suit challenging the validity of the automobile license tax law, offered more witnesses today to testify as to how the tax had been a boon to the smaller and poorer counties of the state.

The testimony was a continuation of the defense effort to show the attack of the Harris county commissioners on the law would, if successful, cripple road building in a great number of Texas counties.

Today In Congress (By The Associated Press)

Senate.
Resumes consideration of $126,000,000 first deficiency bill.

Manufactures sub-committee resumes hearings on 4 per cent beer bills.

Manufactures sub-committee considers unemployment relief projects.

House.
Considers legislation for the expenses of the American delegation to the disarmament conference.

Receives the agriculture department supply bill.

Secretary Mellon continues defense to impeachment charges before judiciary committee.

Tax hearings resumed before ways and means committee.

Agriculture committee opens hearings on short selling legislation.

COUNTER PROPOSALS ON WAGE CUT GIVEN RAILWAY EXECUTIVES

RECESS CONFERENCES MONDAY TO STUDY SITUATION BY BOTH SIDES

CHICAGO, Jan. 18. (P)—Conferences between railway presidents and Brotherhood and Union leaders took a recess today to give both sides more time to study differences arising from the discussion of stabilization of employment and other proposals made by the labor group.

Although both sides insisted nothing definite had been decided, indications were the management proposals were unfavorable to some portions of the labor program, although friendly to other proposals.

The labor program was advanced as a counter proposal to the suggestion of a voluntary ten per cent wage reduction with the implication that if the presidents agreed to it or a large part of it, labor would be willing to take the wage cut for one year.

The unions asked, among other things, that the roads promise full-time employment to at least a minimum force for one year and a definite amount of employment to "stand-by" forces.

The attitude of the presidents regarding the six-hour day was believed to be even less satisfactory to the union heads.

The labor group had asked that a commission be formed to study the ways and means of applying the six-hour day to the railway industry but it was reported the presidents reiterated the usual objections of the management to such a plan.

CHICAGO, Jan. 18. (P)—The Chicago Tribune said today the

(Continued on Page 2)

Discharged Employee Shot Foreman Death

FORT WORTH, Jan. 18. (P)—J. Edward Purgason, 28, mill foreman at Worth Mills, was shot to death today by a former employee, W. H. Delaney, 37, in the second floor of the mill.

Delaney instructed a clerk to police car arrived.

He said the shooting was the culmination of difficulties between the two men that had lasted since Delaney's discharge last April, and during which he had been informed of threats made against his life.

A complaint charging murder, was filed against Delaney, and bond was set at $10,000.

UNIVERSITY OF WISCONSIN UNDERGRADUATES REBELLING AGAINST CAMPUS COURT ACTS

MADISON, Wis., Jan. 18. (P)—Led by four student lawyers, a number of undergraduates at the University of Wisconsin today were in open rebellion against the badger campus traffic court and planned to carry their fight to the state supreme court if they can raise enough money.

The students said they hoped the rebellion would spread to other schools where the fines are collected from students for violation of campus rules.

The four law students today dug through law books as they collected the precedents which they said uphold their position and the fine system is unconstitutional and illegal.

This rather unusual picture of four fraternity brothers diligently pouring over books is occasioned by the recent appointment of President Glenn Frank of a court to hear cases of students accused of violating the campus automobile traffic rules. The appointments were not approved by the board of regents.

"That is unnecessary," Dr. Frank said.

Professors Ray S. Owen and William A. Sumner and Albert F. Gilliland, superintendent of buildings and grounds, make up the court. At the court's initial session last Wednesday 81 fines were assessed against six students. Those who ignored traffic tickets drew double fines.

The court meets again Wednesday and the law students are acting as counsel for all students who apply.

The students maintain the court is illegally appointed; that it does not have constitutional authority to levy and collect fines and that it infringes on the jurisdiction of municipal courts.

BURNS PROVE FATAL.
BEAUMONT, Jan. 18. (P)—Burns suffered when he fell into a tank of boiling water proved fatal last night to Ernest Fruglia. He was injured Jan. 2.

(Continued on Page 2)

DEMOCRATIC PLAN FOR ECONOMY SHOWN IN AGRICULTURE BILL

MORE THAN SIXTY MILLION DOLLARS LESS THAN CURRENT YEAR'S FUND

WASHINGTON, Jan. 18. (P)—The keen blade of democratic economy was exhibited today as the house received from its appropriations committee a closely pruned agriculture department supply bill.

Carrying out the policy laid down by Chairman Byrnes, the committee cut the first big departmental money bill to $175,445,000 for the coming fiscal year. This is $60,220,000 less than appropriations for the current year and is $1,799,000 below the budget estimates of $186,245,000 recommended by President Hoover.

Not one budget item was increased by the committee. Single expenditure was added. In addition, the committee did not go into the question of reducing salaries of government employees.

It is expected to be debated on the floor since the expenditures committee has tabled all proposals to cut salaries.

The cut item in the measure is $100,000,000 for federal highway aid. It is $25,170,000 less than appropriated for this year. The committee also lopped off $366,000 of the appropriation for forest roads and trails, $5,905,000 of which is $3,595,000 less than the current year's appropriation.

A restriction was incorporated to prevent the department from filling any vacant jobs during the first of the current year, except on written approval of the president.

In its report, the committee said that by administrative action, a saving of $3,441,000 already had been effected this year through economies and not allowing salary increases.

One of the big savings was $20,000,000 lopped off for agricultural credits and rehabilitation and $2,000,000 for loans to farmers in storm and drought areas. The committee also voted last year by a 345,000,000 margin not to increase progress for loans but then included in the regular agriculture department appropriation bill.

DIPS FROM AUTO INJURY LUTKIN

LUTKIN, Jan. 18. (P)—Hubbard Weeks, 24, was injured fatally last night by an automobile which struck him at Diablo, 12 miles south of Lutkin. He was walking across the street when he was struck early today in a Lutkin hospital.

LEGISLATURE OF HAWAII CONVENES ON CRIME MATTERS

EVERY EFFORT TO BE MADE TO FORESTALL CHANGE IN TERRITORIAL STATUS

HONOLULU, Jan. 18. (P)—Hawaii legislators gathered here today to consider bills which would revamp the city's police department and make assault on women punishable by death.

Even before the special session was formally convened, bills designed to forestall a change in the status of the territory had been drafted under the supervision of Gov. Lawrence M. Judd.

In some quarters it was rumored that if reported crime conditions continue here the governor may be supplanted by a naval officer.

Governor Judd, who since calling the special session last week, has frequently conferred with Oahu Island legislators, worked until last night on the legislative program.

The program, as announced by the governor in a proclamation, agreed to by special committees of each house, includes bills intended to remove Honolulu's police force from political control and place it directly under the governor, provide for consideration of taxation and educational matters and "other appropriate legislation."

While legislators from the outside islands were arriving today, City and County Attorney James R. Gilliland prepared to present to the grand jury not later than

(Continued on Page 2)

BURIAL RITES FOR C. T. BANISTER ARE HELD ON SUNDAY

MAN PROMINENT IN VAR- IOUS ACTIVITIES OF CORSI- CANA DIED FRIDAY

Funeral services for C. T. Banister, aged 61, general secretary of the Corsicana Y. M. C. A., for the past several years, and prominent civic and religious worker, who died early Friday, were held Sunday afternoon at 2:30 from the First Methodist church with Dr. John W. Bergin, pastor of the church, and Dr. Caspar S. Wright, president of the church, officiating. Interment was in Oakwood Cemetery.

Hundreds filled the large church auditorium to overflowing to pay their last tribute to the Corsicana leader who died at his home early Friday morning after a short, serious illness, and many others stood on the outside of the church unable to find space on the inside. The church was covered with beautiful floral offerings from Corsicana friends and from many other points both within and outside the state.

The ministers eulogized the deceased for his excellent record as a church worker, which embraced long years of service as a member, Sunday school superintendent, steward, and in other official capacities. His services to the community as a member of the school board, director and officer of the Y. M. C. A., drive director for the Salvation Army and member of the advisory board, and numerous other activities were presented and praised.

Music for the services were supplied by the choir of the First Methodist church, augmented with several members of the St. John's choir.

Surviving are his wife, one son, Charles T. Banister, Corsicana city attorney; two brothers, George C. Banister, Danville, Ky., and Henry Banister, Bradfordville, Ky., and a sister, Mrs. Fannie Lucey of Little Rock, Ark.

Active pallbearers were F. N. Drane, E. E. Barnes, Sam J. Jackson, Charles H. Mills, C. G. Davidson, T. H. Benton, F. P. McElwath, and W. P. McCammon.

Honorary pallbearers were the members of the board of directors of the First Methodist church, members of the board of directors of the Corsicana Y. M. C. A., members of the board of trustees of the Corsicana public schools, members of the Salvation Army advisory board, members of the Brotherhood Bible class of the First Methodist church, members of the Corsicana Ministerial association, members of the Lions club, members of the Navarro County Bar association, members of the Civitan club, members of the Young Men's Bible class of the First Methodist church, members of the Masonic lodge, K. E. P. Lodge, officials of the city of Corsicana and the following:

O. P. Douglas, W. H. Norwood, Neal Johnson of Dallas, O. E. Scarborough, C. F. Broughton, George E. Jester, Dr. Homer Jester, Dr. J. E. McClung, Dr. E. H. Newton, Dr. Opie Willis, Dr. A. W. Rogers, J. W. McGill, Wilbur Wright, A. B. King, Dr. A. E. Horn, J. S. Miller, O. E. Allen, E. E. Sheehy, Clyde Stroud, Hon. Luther A. Johnson of Washington, D. C., Ernest Johnson of Dallas, Douglas Johnson of Houston, Roy Peebles, Ted Ferguson, Robert Irwin, E. R. Glover, Paul Moore, Billy Murchison, J. N. Edens, Jarvis Whiteside, Odie Burke, T. J. Worthington, J. N. Carr, Col. Charles A. Davis of Lubbock, E. R. Brown of Dallas, W. C. Proctor of Dallas, Lynne A. Worthington, Sid P. Story, W. M. Peck, Ben Blackmon, Davis Neece, Randolph Jackson, H. D. Fillers of Wichita Falls.

The funeral was directed by the Sutherland funeral home.

Glasses
For clear vision. You can think better, work better, feel better in properly adjusted glasses.
—Come to See Us—
IVERSEN OPTICAL COMPANY
114 N. Beaton Street—Phone 352

Courthouse News

DISTRICT COURT

The following have been summoned as petit jurors for the fourth week of the January term of the Thirteenth judicial district court for the week beginning on Monday, Jan. 25:

Arthur Ferguson, Angus, H. B. Fouty, Navarro, A. A. Fowler, Navarro; G. C. Gamble, Corsicana route; O. B. Cook, Corsicana route; Morris Crawford, Kerens; J. A. Daniel, Kerens; Guy Dobbs, Kerens; C. D. George, Blooming Grove; A. J. Grady, Blooming Grove; L. H. Carroll, Kerens; W. T. Brumblow, Corsicana route; J. S. Hicks, Corsicana route; J. E. Redding, Corsicana route; H. B. Boyd, Frost 2; R. O. Spain, Kerens; O. E. Brichett, Eureka; J. W. Bramblitt, Blooming Grove; C. H. Mock, Eureka; Leslie Parker, Kerens route; Clyde Phillips, Kerens route; J. H. Brooks, Blooming Grove; J. D. Burdine, Corsicana route; C. W. Lockhart, Corsicana route; Lon Warfield, Corsicana route; L. E. Albritton, Kerens route; T. M. Braddock, Kerens route; J. R. Ellis, Dawson; Jim Priddy, Dawson; J. R. Es-tes, Roane; H. H. Slater, Dawson; J. H. Fluker, Roane; L. C. Boswell, Barry; ack Brooks, of Barry.

District Clerk's Office.
The following case was filed: Mayme M. Woods vs. Petroleum Casualty Company, compensation.

Marriage Licenses
P. E. Longorio and Lottie Knight, Sherman Walker and Maggie Blair.

Sheriff's Office.
Fifteen negroes were arrested during the week-end by the sheriff's office for alleged gaming. One negro was arrested on a charge of alleged violation of the prohibition law.

Ellis, a negro, was arrested Sunday by Deputy Sheriff J. M. Westbrook and later made bonds in the sum of $500 each on indictments for alleged murder and assault with intent to murder as a result of an automobile collision near Rice, Dec. 25, 1931, in which John Wolverton received injuries from which he died in an Ennis hospital and which John Smith received serious injuries. The indictments were returned several days ago by the Navarro county grand jury. B. F. Gay, negro, companion of the bride, also was indicted and made bond on companion cases.

Formal Opening New Hi School Tuesday

A formal opening of the new Mildred high school will be held Tuesday night at 7:30, according to an announcement made by members of the faculty of the school.

The building, a two-story brick, has recently completed and has been in use some time.

Spencer Corsets

Individually designed for you. Trained corsetiere.
Mmes. BURSON & PEARSON
1598 W. 4th Ave. Phone 286.

Brown's Hat Shop
Exclusive Millinery
217 N. Beaton Street.

SETTING OF CIVIL DOCKET DISTRICT COURT FOURTH WEEK

Following is the setting of the civil docket in the Thirteenth judicial district court for the fourth week of the January term, which begins Monday, Jan. 25:

Monday, Jan. 25:
17072—Mrs. Orris E. Simmons vs. C. P. Ray, administrator, et al.
17220—McCammon & Lang Lum-ber Co. vs. John Washington et al.
17221—McCammon & Lang Lum-ber Company vs. W. A. Headspeth et al.
17225—J. F. Gantt vs. Roy Lang-eston et al.
17231—R. D. Neece et al. vs. City of Corsicana et al.
17232—Jim Kelly vs. Ancient Or-der of Pilgrims.
17233—Marshall Tillis vs. Ancient Order of Pilgrims.

Wednesday, Jan. 27:
16975—Merritt Hall Barnes, by next friend, Mrs. Charles T. Barnes vs. Sovereign Camp of the Wood-men of the World.
17247—William Leach vs. Lam-on Leach et al.
17250—The First State Bank of Rice vs. E. L. Spurgeon et al.
17264—Izora Carr vs. Zack West-brook et al.

Friday, Jan. 29:
17293—W. F. Jester et al. vs. County of Navarro et al.
17298—Mrs. J. N. Berry vs. S. J. Thigpen et al.
17270—E. A. Elliot et ux vs. Ma-ney & Allen et al.
17276—W. H. Fendley vs. J. N. Thompson et al.

17287—R. D. Fleming vs. Charles G. Jester, First National Bank, garnishee, et al.
17292—William James et al. vs. First State Bank of Hubbard, et al.
17272—Alice McManus vs. Mut-ual Protective Association et al.

Anti-Salooners
(Continued from Page 1)
ing campaigner of the dry cause who only yesterday was indorsed by the league in a formal resolu-tion as "a great champion of freedom of conscience and intel-lect."

The address of the clergyman was set for the end of the after-noon after Dr. James M. Doran, commissioner of industrial alcohol; Louis J. Taber, master of the National Grange; Governor J. G. Winant of New Hampshire; and many others.

Governor William H. Murray of Oklahoma will address the convention tonight on "The Laws Re-lation to Temperance and Mor-als."

The league's declaration of pol-icy, in which also will be given its attitude on prohibition legisla-tion pending in congress will be made public tomorrow night at the close of the biennial conven-tion. The general program for this year, as advocated by the of-ficials and approved approvingly by the members, calls for sup-port of all dry ex-dates regard-less of party label in state and national elections; opposition to legalization of alcoholic beer, to proposals for state liquor control and to a referendum.

The assertion "If the United States goes into the liquor busi-ness, Uncle Sam will necessarily become the bartender for 120,000,000 people" was made before the league by Senator Robinson, re-publican of Indiana. He said this would put the American flag over "very gross shop in the land" and make each bartender a "public official" under state con-trol.

BOOKS—Close out sale, 25c and $1.00 counters.—City Book Store.

HARLAN SHERIFF CLAIMS LAW IN SADDLE TO STAY IN BLOODY MINE DISTRICT

HARLAN, Ky., Jan. 18.—(P)—Pointing to failure of the Na-tional miners union to carry out a scheduled series of demon-strations in Harlan and Bell coun-ties yesterday, Sheriff John H. Blair said today the invasion of the union into the coal fields had been thwarted.

A statement issued today the sheriff declared: "Their movement has been crushed and the law of this county is in full control."

Blair, who had forewarned the miners that any attempt to meet would be met with opposition by force added:

"For myself I have no objection to the presence of the United Mine Workers of America in Har-lan county as that organization is regularly affiliated with the American Federation of Labor. I personally hope the complete col-lapse of Sunday's national min-ers union campaign will convince everyone in this county that au-thorities mean what they say and that our county may soon re-turn to its normal condition on industrial peace."

Sheriff Blair said communistic literature was found in his cloth-ing and a charge of criminal syndicalism would be placed against him.

Escaped Lifer Captured.
HENDERSON, Jan. 18.—(P)—George Young, escaped convict from the Arkansas penitentiary, was recaptured today at Turner-town, near Henderson. Deputy Sheriff Gray was advised by Little Rock authorities that Young es-caped four years ago. He was serving a life sentence for a dual slaying in 1923. Arkansas officers were en route to Henderson to re-turn Young to the penitentiary.

Exchange City Book Store Cash tickets for valuable articles now.

Hawaii

(Continued from page 1.)
Thursday, the evidence in the slay-ing of Joseph Kahawai, the city's latest sensational case.

Held for the slaying are Mrs. Granville R. Fortesque, New York and Washington society ma-tron; her son-in-law, Lieut. Thom-as Massie, U. S. N., and two navy enlisted men—E. J. Lord and Al-bert O. Jones.

Denison Youth Dies
Of Gasoline Burns
DENISON, Jan. 18.—(P)—Billie Williams, 12, today died of burns received in a fire at the home of F. M. Woods, his grandfather.

Woods was burned painfully about his hands and face trying to extinguish the burning clothing. The fire originated yes-terday while the boy was light-ing a gasoline stove. His moth-er, standing near by, dropped a jar of gasoline which exploded and ignited the boy's clothing.

Escaped Lifer Captured.
HENDERSON, Jan. 18.—(P)—George Young, escaped convict from the Arkansas penitentiary, was recaptured today at Turner-town, near Henderson. Deputy Sheriff Gray was advised by Little Rock authorities that Young es-caped four years ago. He was serving a life sentence for a dual slaying in 1923. Arkansas officers were en route to Henderson to re-turn Young to the penitentiary.

Exchange City Book Store Cash tickets for valuable articles now.

You Can Depend on Rubber Goods Like These

The rubber goods we handle are well made of the best quality rubber to be obtain-ed.

Folks have learned they can depend upon our rubber goods and as a result we have no old stock or shelf warmers in the store—it's all fresh and new, and—

EVERY PIECE IS GUARANTEED

Inabnit Drug Co.

Phone 638—We Deliver

become the bartender for 120,000,000 people" was made before the league by Senator Robinson, re-publican of Indiana. He said this would put the American flag over "very gross shop in the land" and make each bartender a "public official" under state con-trol.

BOOKS—Close out sale, 25c and $1.00 counters.—City Book Store.

"How can we keep the most?"
And here's the thought we carry with us into every home that asks our services.

CORLEY Funeral Home
418 North Thirteenth Street.
Phone 66, Corsicana.

This Is Election Year

The most important activity now is poli-tics, local, state and national. The air is full of politics.

For the benefit of the candidates who will run, we publish below the regular announcement fees:

COUNTY CANDIDATES
$15.00 for announcement in either paper
—OR—
$25.00 for announcement in both papers
PRECINCT CANDIDATES
$10.00 for announcement in either paper
—OR—
$15.00 for announcement in both papers

CITY CANDIDATES
All announcements $10.00 in Daily Sun
CASH IN ADVANCE
Must accompany all announcements, or they will not be run.

CORSICANA DAILY SUN
Semi-Weekly Morning Light

Floods

(Continued From Page 1.)
hope of holding the levees against the rising torrents. They says the basin, already deserted by 1500 farm tenants, will be under water probably until April.

No loss of life has been reported.

Trinity River Is High at Dallas

DALLAS, Jan. 18.—(P)—Frank Smith, aged squatter living in the Trinity river bottoms, was rescued from a tiny island in the river channel today after flood waters had swept away his shack.

R. R. Crowder managed to reach the island in a motorboat. Smith had attempted to reach shore on an improvised raft but it sank.

Smith said he was awakened last night when flood waters en-tered his shack. He hurried to the highest point on the island and watched the shack float downstream.

The river rose at noon today to its highest level since March, 1930.

Hundreds of squatters living in shacks in the river bottoms were forced to flee to high ground. No casualties were reported.

Streets near the river were im-passable. Water stood several feet deep on many of them. Three of Dallas' new viaducts were ren-dered unserviceable as approaches were inundated by the flood wa-ters.

The river was expected to begin falling at Dallas late today or to-morrow after the crest of the high water had passed downstream.

Wage Meeting

(Continued From Page 1.)
nation's railroads have declined, for the present at least, to ac-cede to all of labor's demands for stabilization of employment for 2,000,000 railway union workers.

The carriers' answer to the sta-bilization program session yester-day and reveal the trend of their deliberations. The program was a counter proposal to the railroads request that the workers take a voluntary 10 per cent cut in pay for a year.

The paper said the rail commit-tee expressed sympathy for the la-bor plank demanding a guaran-tee of steady employment for one year to a definite number of "neces-sary employees" with the follow-ing statements:

"Should Remove Uncertainty."
"Whatever may be practicable should be done for the purpose of removing so far as possible the feeling of uncertainty concerning the future."

The rails, however, turned down two other major proposals, the paper said, namely those asking a similar guarantee of work for part time forces and agreement on the principle of the six instead of the present eight-hour day.

Comments of union labor lead-ers on these answers were quoted, saying they believed the railroads were only paying the way for bar-gaining on the 10 per cent cut and that the partial opposition to the labor program was only "a form of strategy."

Both groups, represented by com-mittees, have been in conference here since Thursday.

Buy the Cash Way and Save

2-Piece All Over Stuffed Living Room Suite

Upholstered in Pretty Jacquard Velour, a regular $60.00 value, special priced, at only--- $37.50

A Pretty 4-Piece Bed Room Suite

Consisting of Vanity, a roomy Chest of Drawers, Poster Bed, and Bench, almost like new, only--- $29.75

55 pound Non-Tufted, All-White Cotton Mattress, in A. C. A. Striped Tick, only $8.95

50 pound Cotton Mattress, Tufted, covered in Pretty Art Sheeting Tick, only $3.95

Lots of Other Pieces Priced in Proportion---Visit Us---We Can SAVE YOU MONEY

Corsicana Furniture Exchange

316 N. 10th, next to Collin Cash Grocery

Telephone 43

---:---

Night Call 315

1¢ Sale

You pay regular price for first item and get any other item up to same amount for 1c. These are all useful and are worth your while buying at these prices

---BUY---	---BUY---	---BUY---
SHIRTS	SOX	HATS
PAJAMAS	TIES	CAPS
UNDERWEAR	BELTS	SHOES
SWEATERS	SCARFS	LUGGAGE

And any item pertaining to our Furnishing Department

This stock of high grade merchandise is being closed out and it's your chance of a lifetime to take advantage of this buying opportunity.

JANUARY Sale

Used Radios
FOR THREE DAYS ONLY
$1.00 Down

Places Any Model in Your Home
Radios at a Fraction of Their Real Value---Balance in Weekly Payments.

Tatum & Cunningham

204 N. Beaton St. --- Phone 123 --- Corsicana, Texas

TWELFTH BIRTHDAY OF PROHIBITION IS CELEBRATED SENATE

MORRIS SHEPPARD SERVES NOTICE ON 'WETS' NO COMPROMISE

WASHINGTON, Jan. 16.—(P)—The twelfth anniversary of national prohibition was observed in the senate today by Senator Sheppard, democrat, Texas, with a notice that there will be "no compromise" by the dries.

The occasion was the twelfth anniversary of the Eighteenth Amendment, for two years ago, Sheppard, the democrat from Texas, who was co-author of the amendment, extolled the results under it.

Upon completion of his speech, the anti-prohibition viewpoint was given by Tydings, a Maryland democrat.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 16.—(P)—The twelfth anniversary of national prohibition was observed in the senate today by Senator Sheppard, democrat, Texas, with a notice that there will be "no compromise" by the dries.

The author of the 18th amendment noted demands in congress for a national referendum and for beer. He concluded a two-hour address with this statement:

"Let these recalcitrants be placed on notice that so long as the dries are concerned there is to be no compromise on the question of keeping the nation, as a nation, arrayed against beverage alcohol, no submission of a proposed reversal of the American constitution except in obedience to the will of the people in each district and each state—the only true system of power in our American system—and no statutory torpedoing of the American constitution by a few scheming politicians."

He added that "no (party) convention declaration can bind any representative or senator in opposition to the desire of the people who gave them political being."

Senator Sheppard in his lengthy address pictured the evils of alcohol as a beverage; cited Helen Willis Moody, Charles A. Lindbergh, Connie Mack, Coach Alonzo Stegg of Chicago, the late Knute Rockne and others opposing the use of alcohol in any form in sports. He assailed proposals for beer as a violation of the constitution, and cited economic and social benefits to the nation which he attributed to prohibition.

Sheppard denounced a "self evident absurdity" the contentions that more young people are drinking today than before prohibition.

Laashes Beer and Wines. He particularly lashed out at beer and wine, saying they "formed the entrance to the inferno of drink." He declared against any compromise among the various forms of beverage alcohol and declared them all equally detrimental to the individual.

Turning to the economic side of prohibition, Sheppard said:

"It is the almost unanimous testimony of the owners and executives of American industry that prohibition has been of enormous economic benefit to the nation. They assert that difficulties connected with drink among workers has become far less serious and the discharges for drunkenness of a far smaller number. They tell us it is now far easier to keep a complete force at work after pay days, troubles in this regard having almost entirely disappeared."

He said that workers are steadier, clearer-headed, stronger, more efficient and more alert, and that in spite of home brew, speakeasies, bootleggers and handicaps on prohibition, the workers of the nation as a whole are in far better condition than in the days of legalized liquor."

W. C. STROUBE IS WOUNDED WHILE ON HUNTING TRIP

W. C. Stroube was accidentally shot while quail hunting near Tyler, Friday. Seven birds were shot and one of them, a quail, hit Mr. Stroube's face, neck and hand, his heavy leather hunting coat saving him from more serious injury. Two of the shot were extracted by Dr. Tyler, where Mr. Stroube was rushed following the accident. The remainder of the shot were taken out here Saturday. Although the wounds are very painful, Mr. Stroube's condition is not considered serious.

A sudden turn of a covey of quail put Mr. Stroube in the line of fire.

Sheriff Has Idea For Still Hunting

ALBION, Ill., Jan. 16.—(P)—Sheriff Harper of Edwards county is going on a still hunt, with a new idea.

He's going to try by the gallon. If you give the sheriff information leading to the seizure of a still with your reward will be $1, or if it's a 25-gallon affair you'll get $25 and so on up the line.

PAIN IN SIDE, DIZZINESS

Austin, Texas. I was never well. I was troubled with dizziness and finally became so ill I had to go to bed. I had a pain in my side and had a functioning disturbance," said Mrs. S. B. McCall, 301 Colorado St. "The doctors advised an operation but my mother told me to take Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription, for the ills of women, and Golden Medical Discovery, a general tonic, and I took these two medicines in tablet form, along with Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets as a laxative and they helped me greatly."

Dr. Pierce's Medicines.

Texas Rangers Raided Longview Gambling House

LONGVIEW, Jan. 16.—(P)—Texas rangers staged a spectacular raid on Longview's leading gambling hall last night, rounding up 22 players and five asserted game operators.

Captain Tom Hickman, W. H. Kirby and Steward Stanley, Fort Worth rangers, entered the place in the guise of pleasure seekers. After smashing paraphernalia, they summoned Justice of the Peace E. B. Penick and held court in the hall for the players. Sam McFarland, alleged operator of the establishment, paid most of the fines for his patrons, amounting to $341.

Felony charges were filed against McFarland, G. J. Joplin, Joe Griffin, Percy Lewis and J. E. Stanley, accusing them of running a gambling house. Their bonds were set at $750 each.

Griffin operated a Hillside service station last March 28 which was raided by a party of rangers by Sergeant M. T. (Lone Wolf) Gonzales. Thirty gallons of liquor was confiscated.

Captain Hickman said two undercover men had been investigating the gambling hall for the past several days, sitting in on the games. They reported oil field workers and others were frequenting the place in large numbers.

SPECIAL INQUIRY INTO SETTLEMENT BRIDGE CONTEST

ATTORNEY GENERAL ALL-RED UPSET BY PAYMENT TO BRIDGE COMPANY

AUSTIN, Jan. 16.—(P)—Attorney General James V. Allred held a special court of inquiry yesterday to ascertain why the Texas highway commission settled a suit brought by the Terral Bridge Company without knowledge of the state.

The action followed closely an announcement of District Judge W. F. Robertson that he would enter judgment in favor of the bridge company. The suit was pending in federal court.

The action followed closely an announcement of District Judge W. F. Robertson that he would enter judgment in favor of the bridge company. The suit was pending in federal court.

The suit by the Terral Bridge Company for $50,000 involved a contract with verbiage similar to one which Judge Robertson had just entered into with the company. The commission exceeded its authority in executing the contract, Judge Robertson ruled.

Allred appeared considerably put out at the time, and after the hearing and interrogated Gibb Gilchrist, state highway engineer, and Cone Johnson, highway commissioner, at length concerning the settlement.

The bridge controversies embraced free and toll bridges at three points, between Denison and Durant, Terral, Okla., and Ringgold, Texas, and Gainesville, Texas and Marietta, Okla.

An attempt was to have been made Monday and Tuesday by the commission to settle the Gainesville controversy but Johnson, at the court of inquiry, promised Allred no action would be taken and he would inform the attorney general before any action was done about it.

The Gainesville contract is similar to the Denison and Ringgold contracts. In it the commission proposed to permit the bridges to operate a certain length of time without competition from the free bridge and to compensate the toll bridge owners for tolls lost if the bridges were opened permanently.

Gilchrist testified that $15,000 had been mentioned in informal discussions of the Gainesville contract.

Allred said before the court of inquiry convened he would enter judgment in favor of the bridge company, but he would not enter judgment in favor of the bridge company until he had heard from the attorney general.

It was disclosed at the inquiry the settlement was made after the federal court had refused the company's application for an injunction to restrain the state from opening the free bridge and after the free bridge had been opened and in use more than a month.

Bridge Company Asks New Trial

AUSTIN, Jan. 16.—(P)—Attorneys for the Red River Bridge Company filed a motion for a new trial today in its suit brought in an effort to recover $185,000 damages from the State Highway Commission.

Judge W. F. Robertson of Travis county district court entered a judgment denying the company the relief sought. It was claimed that the highway commission owed it the sum asked under agreement made when Texas and Oklahoma contracted for a bridge across the Red River between Denison, Texas and Durant, Okla., to parallel a toll crossing owned by the bridge company.

Judge Robertson held the purported agreement void, because the signature of Governor P. S. Sterling, then chairman of the commission, was given to one with a provision that the two other commissioners sign. W. R. Ely of Abilene, a member, refused to ratify it. A second agreement was held invalid because the commission did not have authority under the law to make it, Judge Robertson held.

Judge Robertson did not indicate when he would dispose of the motion.

CARD OF THANKS.

We wish to express our deepest appreciation to all for the kind words and deeds of sympathy rendered us during our recent bereavement. We especially thank the two nurses and Dr. David of the Navajo Clinic who attended our dear husband and father during his short illness and death.

Mrs. Nedon Muns, Sr.; Miss Effie Muns, Mr. and Mrs. Willie Picklin, Mr. and Mrs. Claburn Jones, Mr. and Mrs. M. J. Muns, Jr. and Mrs. Roy Holcomb.

JUDGE ROBERTSON TO ENTER JUDGMENT IN FAVOR OF STATE

RED RIVER BRIDGE COMPANY ALLOWED NOTHING AS RESULT OF DECISION

AUSTIN, Jan. 15.—(P)—District Judge W. F. Robertson of Travis county district court said today he would enter judgment in favor of the state in the suit brought by the Red River Bridge Company against the state highway commission for alleged breach of contract. By such a judgment the bridge company would take nothing by its suit.

The decision had not been entered on the record but Judge Robertson said he had concluded in favor of the state and would enter the judgment before the present term of his court ends tomorrow.

Suit was brought against the commission on two contracts. The commission proposed under one to pay the bridge company $60,000 for a toll bridge between Denison, Texas and Durant, Okla., which would parallel free bridge built jointly by Texas and Oklahoma, was opened, and under the other agreed to permit the toll bridge to be operated 14 months without competition from the free bridge. For each month short of 14 the state was to pay $10,000.

Judge Robertson said he decided the $60,000 contract was not legally executed because of the conditional signature of Gov. R. S. Sterling, who at the time he signed, was chairman of the highway commission. Sterling testified he signed the contract on condition that other members sign it and that it was understood his signature would be voided in event either of the commissioners refused to sign. W. R. Ely of Abilene, member of the commission, refused to sign.

Had No Authority. The commission had no authority to enter into a contract that would have permitted the bridge company 14 months operation without competition, Judge Robertson held.

Attorneys for the bridge company indicated during trial that the decision would be appealed to the higher courts if it held against the bridge company.

While Governor Sterling testified his signature to the $60,000 contract was conditional, G. H. Penland, Dallas attorney, who presented the contract to the governor, said he told Governor Sterling that Ely had refused to sign.

The governor, then chairman of the Texas highway commission, was engaged in his campaign for governor when he signed the contract.

The suit was filed after the legislature had passed a special law giving the bridge company the right to sue on the contracts.

Governor Sterling signed the contested contracts in Gainesville. Cone Johnson signed them in Dallas and Ely signed only the one giving the bridge company 14 months non-competitive operation.

The bridge company claimed a perpetual franchise from the Chickasaw Indian tribe to operate a toll bridge or ferry and claimed this right extended for several miles up and down the river, including the bridgeheads of the free bridge. It also claimed title to property on which the Oklahoma end of the free bridge rested, and an easement to the land on which the Texas side rested.

These, with other considerations, were claimed by the bridge company to be legal obstacles that must be removed before the free bridge could be used. The highway commission allegedly entered the contracts to eliminate these obstacles.

The state contended the highway commission did not have authority to contract with an individual or private corporation under the statute directing construction of the free bridges, holding that the right of contract was limited to the adjoining state and the federal government.

It was argued by the bridge company that authority to construct the bridges necessarily implied authority to remove all obstacles in the path of its construction.

DALLAS, Jan. 15.—(P)—Joseph W. Bailey, Jr., attorney for the Red River Bridge Company, in its suit against the Texas highway commission for alleged breach of contract, said today the matter of an appeal from the state district court decision in favor of the state would be determined by Federal Judge John C. Pollock of Kansas City and Federal Judge Joseph R. Patterson of Houston. Affairs of the bridge company are in receivership before the two federal judges.

EAGER TO TELL ABOUT HER STOMACH

"I want to tell others about my experience with Pape's Diapiesin," says Mrs. B. Eastman, 1200 California St., Denver, Colo. "I tried a lot of things for my indigestion, but none did me any good. Then a friend persuaded me to take a few tablets of this wonderful preparation."

"Now I even eat cabbage without any distress afterwards. It used to cause real suffering. I am not nearly so nervous as I used to be; feel much stronger and better in every way."

A medicine must have real merit to bring forth enthusiastic statements like this. And when not one, but hundreds, even thousands, are telling the same story of success, there seems no reason to doubt the efficiency and day-out reliability of Pape's Diapiesin to help stomach sufferers.

These harmless, candy-like tablets relieve the heartburn, nausea, gas, belching, headaches, dizziness and other symptoms of indigestion.

HAWKINS SCARBOROUGH (Political Advertisement).

Boots Predicted For Milady Soon By Paris Showing

NEW YORK, Jan. 18.—(P)—It is predicted that fashionable women will be stepping out in boots.

An indication that the prediction may come true is the patent leather shoe with buttoned cloth top, introduced in the recent collection of a leading Paris shoemaker.

This so-called boot, however, is low cut, more like a high cut shoe. It has a buttoned cloth top, introduced in the recent collection of a leading Paris shoemaker.

The shoe is made of patent leather, with a buttoned cloth top, introduced in the recent collection of a leading Paris shoemaker.

The shoe is made of patent leather, with a buttoned cloth top, introduced in the recent collection of a leading Paris shoemaker.

CYCLONES CONTINUE TAKE HEAVY TOLL OF DEATH IN SOUTHLAND

(By The Associated Press) Tragedy draped its sombre black today over the motley of capricious winter.

Dandelions still bloomed in Ontario and there was howling on the green in the north country; but ten were dead from a tornado that thrashed through Tennessee farming communities and Idaho Nevada, had to the ankle and buttoned over the instep with a single button. The cloth part is embroidered in heavy white braid.

The Tennessee tornado killed ten members of a single family and injured three others. Houses were upset and other property damaged.

Wyoming, Montana and New Mexico were cold and clear while snow blocked highways in southern Idaho. Nevada had temperatures that dipped down to a minus 35. The Dakotas and Nebraska buttoned tight their neckers as the mercury hit zero.

Floods pounded against Mississippi and the levees were threatened. The explosion of dynamite echoed along the Tallahatchie as homeowners sought to save their property at the expense of others by dynamiting the levees and losing the flood waters.

Ten Members Of One Family Killed

TRENTON, Tenn., Jan. 15.—(P)—Ten members of a family were killed and three others injured yesterday when a tornado whipped through two farming communities, bowling over houses and barns.

The dead: O. P. Rice, 45; Mrs. P. W. Rice; O. P. Rice, 17; Hazel Rice, 14; Edith Rice, 12; R. E. Rice, 4; Horace Rice, 10; P. W. Rice Jr., 9; a six-month-old baby and Elsie Mcneal, 3, granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. Rice.

Little hope was held for the recovery of Lucille Rice, an eleven-year-old girl, who was found alive near Lex, Tenn. She, Ila Rice and May Ann Rice were in a hospital at Dyersburg, Tenn.

Broken telephone lines prevented complete reports of the storm's damage, but it was understood at least ten or twelve buildings in or near the Lex and Eaton communities had been destroyed.

The dead and injured were picked up and taken to the hospital. Several hundred yards among parts of the house. One child was blown so far his body was not found for several hours.

CONSTITUTIONALITY STATE COTTON CUT LAW TO BE TESTED

FRANKLIN, Jan. 16.—(P)—Constitutionality of the state's cotton acreage reduction law will be tested in district court at Franklin, Jan. 20, when an injunction suit filed by County Attorney T. L. Tyson against Fred L. Smith, farmer, comes up for hearing.

The suit alleged Smith was making arrangements to plant more cotton this year than the statute permitted, the law forbidding the planting in 1932 of more than 39 per cent of the acreage in which cotton was grown in 1931.

It was alleged that Smith had shown his intention of violating the law by breaking and plowing his land and had made arrangements with the Calvert State bank at Calvert to finance his farming operations in 1932 by executing a crop lien, showing he expected to plant 900 acres in cotton.

A later date for the hearing had been asked by J. Felton Lane of Hearne, defense counsel. Judge W. C. Davis said he favored the earliest possible date because of the interest involved.

FOR DISTRICT JUDGE To the People of Navarro County: I take this method of announcing to the people of Navarro county my candidacy for re-election to the office of District Judge of Navarro County.

When I announced for this office the first time I promised the people of this county a fair, impartial, honest and efficient administration of the office I now seek.

Navarro County was organized about 1850. Since I have been your District Judge there has been disposed of by this Court approximately one thousand more cases than were filed in this Court during all of the seventy-five years preceding my administration. That is, during my administration there has been disposed of by me approximately one thousand more cases than all the District Judges of Navarro county combined have disposed of previous to my administration. No one doubts, not even those who oppose me, that they can secure a fair and impartial trial before me in accordance with law and evidence. With a consciousness of a duly well performed, and upon this record of honesty, impartiality, fearlessness and efficiency to confidently submit my candidacy to you, and I will appreciate the support of every citizen of Navarro county, whether you agree with me about other matters or not.

Respectfully, HAWKINS SCARBOROUGH (Political Advertisement).

STATE HIGHWAY COMMISSION PAID TERRAL COMPANY

FIFTEEN THOUSAND DOLLARS GIVEN IN SETTLEMENT ALLEGED DAMAGE

AUSTIN, Jan. 15.—(P)—A special court of inquiry was ordered today by Attorney General James V. Allred to inquire into circumstances of a settlement by the highway commission of a suit brought by the Terral Bridge company, operators of a toll bridge between Ringgold, Texas, and Terral, Okla.

Subpoenas were issued for Cone Johnson and D. K. Martin, members of the commission, and Gibb Gilchrist, state highway engineer. The suit was settled by the commission for $15,000 last September without the knowledge or advice of the attorney general's department. The bridge company had been denied a temporary injunction of contract growing out of the construction by Oklahoma and Texas of a parallel free bridge.

The bridge company had been denied a temporary injunction of contract growing out of the construction by Oklahoma and Texas of a parallel free bridge. The bridge company had been denied a temporary injunction of contract growing out of the construction by Oklahoma and Texas of a parallel free bridge.

The bridge company had been denied a temporary injunction of contract growing out of the construction by Oklahoma and Texas of a parallel free bridge. The bridge company had been denied a temporary injunction of contract growing out of the construction by Oklahoma and Texas of a parallel free bridge.

The bridge company had been denied a temporary injunction of contract growing out of the construction by Oklahoma and Texas of a parallel free bridge. The bridge company had been denied a temporary injunction of contract growing out of the construction by Oklahoma and Texas of a parallel free bridge.

The bridge company had been denied a temporary injunction of contract growing out of the construction by Oklahoma and Texas of a parallel free bridge. The bridge company had been denied a temporary injunction of contract growing out of the construction by Oklahoma and Texas of a parallel free bridge.

The bridge company had been denied a temporary injunction of contract growing out of the construction by Oklahoma and Texas of a parallel free bridge. The bridge company had been denied a temporary injunction of contract growing out of the construction by Oklahoma and Texas of a parallel free bridge.

The bridge company had been denied a temporary injunction of contract growing out of the construction by Oklahoma and Texas of a parallel free bridge. The bridge company had been denied a temporary injunction of contract growing out of the construction by Oklahoma and Texas of a parallel free bridge.

The bridge company had been denied a temporary injunction of contract growing out of the construction by Oklahoma and Texas of a parallel free bridge. The bridge company had been denied a temporary injunction of contract growing out of the construction by Oklahoma and Texas of a parallel free bridge.

The bridge company had been denied a temporary injunction of contract growing out of the construction by Oklahoma and Texas of a parallel free bridge. The bridge company had been denied a temporary injunction of contract growing out of the construction by Oklahoma and Texas of a parallel free bridge.

The bridge company had been denied a temporary injunction of contract growing out of the construction by Oklahoma and Texas of a parallel free bridge. The bridge company had been denied a temporary injunction of contract growing out of the construction by Oklahoma and Texas of a parallel free bridge.

The bridge company had been denied a temporary injunction of contract growing out of the construction by Oklahoma and Texas of a parallel free bridge. The bridge company had been denied a temporary injunction of contract growing out of the construction by Oklahoma and Texas of a parallel free bridge.

The bridge company had been denied a temporary injunction of contract growing out of the construction by Oklahoma and Texas of a parallel free bridge. The bridge company had been denied a temporary injunction of contract growing out of the construction by Oklahoma and Texas of a parallel free bridge.

The bridge company had been denied a temporary injunction of contract growing out of the construction by Oklahoma and Texas of a parallel free bridge. The bridge company had been denied a temporary injunction of contract growing out of the construction by Oklahoma and Texas of a parallel free bridge.

The bridge company had been denied a temporary injunction of contract growing out of the construction by Oklahoma and Texas of a parallel free bridge. The bridge company had been denied a temporary injunction of contract growing out of the construction by Oklahoma and Texas of a parallel free bridge.

The bridge company had been denied a temporary injunction of contract growing out of the construction by Oklahoma and Texas of a parallel free bridge. The bridge company had been denied a temporary injunction of contract growing out of the construction by Oklahoma and Texas of a parallel free bridge.

The bridge company had been denied a temporary injunction of contract growing out of the construction by Oklahoma and Texas of a parallel free bridge. The bridge company had been denied a temporary injunction of contract growing out of the construction by Oklahoma and Texas of a parallel free bridge.

The bridge company had been denied a temporary injunction of contract growing out of the construction by Oklahoma and Texas of a parallel free bridge. The bridge company had been denied a temporary injunction of contract growing out of the construction by Oklahoma and Texas of a parallel free bridge.

The bridge company had been denied a temporary injunction of contract growing out of the construction by Oklahoma and Texas of a parallel free bridge. The bridge company had been denied a temporary injunction of contract growing out of the construction by Oklahoma and Texas of a parallel free bridge.

The bridge company had been denied a temporary injunction of contract growing out of the construction by Oklahoma and Texas of a parallel free bridge. The bridge company had been denied a temporary injunction of contract growing out of the construction by Oklahoma and Texas of a parallel free bridge.

The bridge company had been denied a temporary injunction of contract growing out of the construction by Oklahoma and Texas of a parallel free bridge. The bridge company had been denied a temporary injunction of contract growing out of the construction by Oklahoma and Texas of a parallel free bridge.

The bridge company had been denied a temporary injunction of contract growing out of the construction by Oklahoma and Texas of a parallel free bridge. The bridge company had been denied a temporary injunction of contract growing out of the construction by Oklahoma and Texas of a parallel free bridge.

Monthly Business And Social Session C. E. Union Monday

The monthly business and social meeting of the City Union Christian Endeavor will be at the Third Avenue Presbyterian Church Monday night at 7:30. It was announced today by Aubrey Franklin, president. According to the president, a large number of important matters will be brought up for discussion and settlement, and a large representation from each church is expected to be present. The social hour will be directed by members of the Third Avenue Presbyterian church society.

COURTHOUSE NEWS

District Court The Navarro county grand jury was still in session Friday morning but it is expected the investigators will recess during the day.

The trial of the case of Tony Brockum vs. Zack Westbrook et al., damages, which started Monday in the Thirtieth judicial district court, was still in progress Friday morning.

District Clerk's Office Three juvenile cases were filed in the district clerk's office on Thursday. Clay Miller, criminal district attorney.

Marriage Licenses R. H. Huarey and Mattie Dell Hopwood. Douglas E. Dempsey and Pauline Hall.

Trustee's Deed M. M. Wynne, substitute trustee, for Minnie Wornell et vir; to the United Savings Bank of Dallas, lot 34x218 in block 450-B, H. B. Wilson subdivision, Corsicana, $750.

Justice Court Judge J. L. Cox assessed a fine against a white man Thursday on a charge of alleged drunkenness.

RAINS FILL TANKS HUBBARD, Jan. 16.—The two inches of rain this week filled all of the smaller tanks and gave an excellent season in the ground. Several of the lakes that furnished the water for this company have been filled and sufficient water has been impounded for the needs of Hubbard for the next twelve months.

COMMISSIONER ELECTION HUBBARD, Jan. 16.—A petition signed by 40 citizens was presented to the city council this week asking for an election to determine whether the present administrative form of city government be changed to a commission form. The city council granted the petition and ordered the election to be held Feb. 23.

Attorney General James V. Allred declared he would enjoin any payment of money to the Gainesville toll bridge operators by the highway commission on the contract affecting the Gainesville-Marietta bridge.

Allred criticized the action of the commission in settling with the Terral Bridge company while a suit was pending. He said the action was taken by the commission without knowledge of, or consultation with, the attorney general's department.

Allred several months ago wrote an opinion in which he held the contracts with the Red River Bridge company illegal. At that time he threatened to enjoin the highway commission from settling the controversy through payment of $117,000.

The three bridges were tied up in negotiations to settle the controversy over the joint construction by Texas and Oklahoma of free bridges across Red River, paralleling toll bridges at the respective points.

Allred stated that if the contract with the Terral company was invalidated the commission exceeded its authority in settling for $15,000 but that if the contract was valid the action was legal.

Sun want ads bring results.

To Mothers whose children won't eat

NATURE knows best. Never coax a child to eat. Remove the cause of a youngster's poor appetite. When appetite fails, tongue is coated white, eyes are a bilious yellow, don't give small children a constipating cathartic that drains the system. California syrup of figs is all the "medicine" they require.

The Child's Appetite Will Always Respond

Specialists will tell you that a sluggish appetite almost always means the child has a sluggish colon. Correct this condition called stasis, and see how quickly a listless, drooping boy or girl begins to eat—and gain! The only "medicine" such children seem to need is pure, unadulterated fig syrup.

Children who get syrup of figs, now and then, soon have the appetite and energy of young animals! They keep well and avoid colds and sluggish spells. Nature never made a finer laxative for children; and they all love the wholesome, fruity flavor of the real California syrup of figs. It's purely vegetable, but every druggist has it all bottled, with directions. Begin with it at once. The very next day, your child will be eating better and feeling better. Keep on with the syrup of figs a few days and see amazing improvement in appetite, color, weight, and spirits.

A single IF The promises made by the bottlers of California Syrup of Figs are true, and it will do the same for you. IF it's genuine CALIFORNIA. Don't accept substitutes.

Ben Hur to Hold Cage Tournament January 22-23

MEXIA, Jan. 14.—(Sp)—Fred E. Kay, principal of the Ben Hur high school west of Mexia, has issued an invitation to all high schools of Limestone county to send their basketball teams to Ben Hur's new gymnasium on Friday and Saturday, January 22 and 23, for a tournament. A large loving cup will be offered for the winner of the tournament. Semi-finals and finals will be played a week later, on Saturday, January 30. The official league tournament will be in Mexia in February.

PROHIBITION VOTE IN CONGRESS THIS SESSION ASSURED

BOTH HOUSE ANTI-PROHIBITION BLOCS TO SUPPORT CHANGE IN LAW

WASHINGTON, Jan. 15.—(P)—Both house anti-prohibition blocs decided today to support a suggested change in the eighteenth amendment returning liquor control to the states.

The action of the wet bloc assures at least one vote on prohibition this session since it has sufficient members to force the question to the floor.

Corsicana Light.

Associated Press Licensed Wire Service.
PUBLISHED TUESDAYS AND FRIDAYS
By A. A. Wortham, Editor
L. A. Martin, Business Manager Owned and Published by the Daily Sun and Semi-Weekly Light
Sun-Light Building, 100 S. Main Street
ASSOCIATE PUBLISHERS:
Lynne Wortham, Editor Entered in the Corsicana Post Office as second class matter.
Rates in Navarro county and United States, both for renewal and new subscribers: In advance, year, $1.00; six months, 75c; three months, 50c.

NOTICE
To those who want their paper changed from one address to another, please give old address as well as new. It will cause less delay and we can give much better service.
Member of Associated Press.
The Associated Press is exclusively entitled to the use for publication of all news credited to it or not otherwise credited to this paper and also the local news published herein. All rights of republication reserved.

CORSICANA, TEX., JAN. 19, 1932.

CONFESSIONS OF FAILURE.

In spite of all that the Republican leaders can do to stop it, the proposal to have President Hoover step aside and permit some other Republican to be the G. O. P. nominee this year keeps on cropping out. Ruth Hanna McCormick, former Congresswoman-at-large from Illinois, daughter of Senator Mark Hanna and widow of Senator Medill McCormick, and the Republican nominee for Senator in her own right in the 1930 election, voiced what is evidently a very prevalent trend of thought when she published in her newspaper at Rockford, Ill., an editorial bluntly stating the situation.

"If," runs the editorial, "a considerable number of Republicans would prefer to have Mr. Hoover step aside as a candidate for renomi-nation, why should not the party leaders select somebody else? The answer is that precedent is all against such a course.

"At the present moment,
Mr. Hoover is not a popular leader. We state this as a fact, apart from any criticism of his record as Chief Executive."

There does not seem any probability that the expedient offered by Mrs. Mc-Cormick will be adopted, however, general may be the echo of the sentiment throughout the Republican party. The titular leaders of that organization have registered their thought that to deny their President a re-nomination would only be stepping from the frying pan into the fire. Such an action, they reason, would be a confession that their administration had failed, that the issues on which they must depend—such as the Hoover program or lack of program for lifting us out of the business depression, the Hoover farm relief measure, which has cost the country a couple of hundred million dollars and left the farmers in worse case than ever, and the sacred Smoot-Hawley tariff, which a Republican Congress steam-rolled through and which Mr. Hoover signed—were all blunders. Moreover, with the Administration in control of the delegations to the convention, particularly from the South, they realize that only Mr. Hoover's voluntary action could deprive him of the candidacy and so far there is no indication that the President has even considered the possibility of such a decision.

Another conundrum involved in the project is:
where would the Republicans get a substitute? The first name mentioned by any of them is naturally Calvin Coolidge. But the Sage of Northampton has indicated very clearly that the candidacy in 1932 does not appeal to him at all. It is not surprising that a man who has been so successful in politics as the ex-President should not dare to risk spoiling a perfect record by submitting it to the unpromising ordeal of trying to rehabilitate his party in the midst of a business panic and a plainly demonstrated revulsion against that party all over the country. Even those dreamers who think along Mrs. McCormick's lines realize that under no circumstances would Coolidge be a candidate before the convention against Hoover. The only possible chance would be the remote one that Hoover would be eliminated and that the convention would tender him the nomination by acclamation.

Such a sequence of events has never transpired in our political history, and it is no more likely this year than it was in 1912 when, as the Register-Republic editorial States—Utah and Vermont,"

JUST FOLKS

EXERCISE.
The king fell ill. Unto the royal bed
They summoned doctors very grave and wise,
And after much conferring this they said,
"Master, your greatest need is exercise."

"How shall I get it?" asked the pale-faced king.
"There is but one way only,"
they replied.
"Go to the woods and learn an axe to swing,
Get down and walk and let your groomsmen ride."

"Behold your servants all with health aglow, Building strong bodies by the tasks they do,
If laughter such as theirs you wish to know,
Then you must know the pain they suffer, too.
"If you would own, in spite of pump and wealth,
The strength of arm that woodmen all possess,
If you would share the poor man's stock of health,
Then you must share the poor man's weariness."

(Copyright, 1932, Edgar A. Guest.)

ABOUT MR. HEARST.

William Randolph Hearst,
the well-known publisher of a chain of newspapers, gives the "Garner for President" boom a shove—whether up or down remains to be seen, observes the Editorial Dis-gest, Houston, which continues as follows:

In a recent statement he lauded the speaker as "another Champ Clark" and asserted President Hoover's "unprecedented unpopularity" is because "he has always been a Wilsonite."

Opinion among Texas editorial writers seems to differ
as to the value of Mr.
Hearst's indorsement of Mr.
Garner—or any other man,
for that matter. One paper bases its objections to the indorsement on the fact that Mr. Hearst seldom if ever, puts his money on the right horse," classing him as a "presidential tout whose tips always turn sour."

But another editorial writer, who holds Mr. Hearst in the same "high regard," is willing to overlook—temporarily at least—the faults of Mr. Hearst. He says:

"When the great chain publisher took up the cudgel for John Nance Garner as a Democratic Presidential possibility we could not help but breathe an appreciative amen." Mr. Hearst may be wrong about a lot of things, as many people believe, but in offering the name of Congressman Garner, Mr.
Hearst has offered the name of a man whose type is sorely needed in high office.

"Hard-working, practical and at times almost blunt,
Mr. Garner is probably closer to the people than any man whose name is today coupled with Presidential possibility. Further, he is not an overnight national character. He has spent more than a score of years in a minority party, all the while becoming more and more an American leader in politics and in legislation."

Doubtless Mr. Hearst meant to be complimentary to the speaker, and but for his unwarranted attack on Woodrow Wilson, his speech might have been accorded better reception in Texas.

Texas was a Wilson stronghold during the lifetime of Woodrow Wilson, and still cherishes the memory of the great Democratic president. Loyal to the Wilson ideals, it is doubtful if any presidential candidate could gain support of Texas Democrats who does not adhere to those principles.

But Mr. Garner, in his own words, hears "no presidential bees buzzing" around his office. Until he does, there is little need to become unduly alarmed at what Mr. Hearst says, or thinks, of Mr. Garner—or any other presidential possibility.

A Californian asks a divorce, one charge being that a former suitor waited five years after the ceremony to kiss the bride.

phrases it: "Another Republican convention in Chicago hitched its precedent to a steamroller and forced the nomination of a man whom a majority of Republicans did not want to see nominated." And that gloomy editorial concludes:

"The people vetoed the action when they went to the polls in November of that year and gave the nominee of that convention the electoral votes of only two States—Utah and Vermont."

Do I Hear a Tick?

DEATH IN THE FOG.

The discovery of the wrecked plane and the bodies of Mrs. Ruth Stewart and Mrs. Debbie Stanford on a mountainside west of Harrisburg adds two more names to the list claimed by Pennsylvania's mountain death trap for aviators. And it closes a sad story of flight, a story both unusual and dramatic. Two planes, flying together, sped into a cloud bank over the mountains. Only one plane emerged. The mists held the secret of the other until Pilot Lukens, hovering in an autogiro, sighted the tel-tale wreckage.

Fog is still the great enemy of those who fly. It not only robs them of sight but all too often—and this seems to have been a case in point—it robs them of confidence in their instruments as well. Their sense of direction, even their sense of equilibrium, falters.
And the end comes in a sudden crash against an unseen obstacle.

Obviously, there is more to flying than mere manipulation of controls. And fog is the supreme test. These two women, both said to have been skillful fliers, found that test too great,
even as others before them.

THE LAST WAS FIRST

There is a yarn in circulation about a prominent lawyer, one of the really big minds of the legal profession, who recently attended a class in a certain law school. In the presence of the eminent visitor, pedagogical formalities were dispensd with and things were opened up for general discussion.

Our distinguished legalist
—so the story goes, began questioning the students as to their academic progress and standing. When he asked how many were maintaining averages of 90 per cent or better, several hands went up. Still more indicated grades of 80. The majority admitted passing averages of 75.

"Is there anyone," asked the Big Mind, "who is down in the 25 per cent class of hopeless failure?"
Sheepishly, a lank youngster in the rear of the room made an affirmative sign.
"Well," said the erudite questioner, "that is about where I stood in law school."

We shall always have people who "can't afford it," but that doesn't seem to cramp their style.

He's a regular boy with the pep to make good if the neighbors think he will hang some day.

MISSISSIPPI WATERS.

In Mississippi, the Talla-hatchie river, swollen by rain to many times its normal size, has broken levees and flooded scores of thousands of acres. Eventually this water will pass off through the Yazoo into the Mississippi above Vicksburg.
The Mississippi is such a mighty stream that it will be able to absorb the Tallahatchie's flood waters without difficulty.

But the Tallahatchie is only one river, and a small one at that, among many thousands that drain into the Mississippi. There are others, all the way from southwestern New York and the eastern slopes of the Appalachians to western Montana and the Rockies.
Some of them form vast systems in themselves—the Ohio, the Missouri, the Arkansas, the Red. When heavy and continuous rains fall throughout all these tributary systems, and the water comes booming down to the Mississippi, the main stream swells dangerously, and frequently there are disastrous floods—such as that of 1897, which covered 20,000 square miles; that of 1912, which caused a property loss of $42,000,000 and made relief necessary for 272,000 people, and that of 1927, still fresh in people's memory.

The maximum discharge of the upper Mississippi is 450,000 cubic feet per second; of the Missouri, 900,
000; of the Ohio, 1,400,000.
If all three were at peak flood, that would mean 2,- 750,000 second-feet at Cairo in a stream whose bank capacity is only 1,000,000 cubic feet. Such a flood, is of course, a faint possibility;
it is quite unlikely that the peak of all these floods would reach Cairo at the same time. But at Columbus, Ky., just below Cairo, the gauges have shown a flood discharge of 2,015,000 feet in a river whose ordinary low-water discharge is only 70,000-feet—which shows what the Mississippi can do and why it is feared.

Now it is evident from these figures, and from the history of Mississippi floods, that no valley state can protect itself, single-handed, from disaster. Build levees 1,000 feet high, and the boiling flood would undermine them and break through. Confine the river in concrete banks, and it would overflow them. The solution of the problem lies not exclusively in the main river, but in controlling the whole system. Simultaneous heavy rains in a dozen states can cause losses amounting to millions in Arkansas alone, or in Missis-

FREEDOM OF THE PRESS

The Constitutional guarantee, fundamental in the Democracy, of the freedom of individual opinion and its expression, whether in free speech or free press, meets another challenge in the refusal of a Kentucky court to allow the representative of the Knoxville News-Sentinel to attend a mine murder trial, on the complaint that the newspaper had libelled and slandered the court in commenting on a previous case of somewhat like circumstances.

In arguing before the court of appeals a plea for a writ against this arbitrary order, Newton D. Baker declared that it was "an unwarrantable deprivation of a property right" and by implication "imperilled a civil liberty of the people." And the second protest is of greater concern than the first.

If the Knoxville newspaper were "contemptuous" and "contumacious" in the prior instance, the court had its remedy, prescribed by the law, for dealing with the offense. But there is no authority in the law for otherwise denying the paper its common right, and holding it and every other newspaper in the jurisdiction, by implication at least, in duress against any further utterance that might give offense to the bench.

Under ordinary circumstances, the press is not in contempt when it criticises a court. If circumstances or the form of manner of criticism shall be such as to constitute contempt, there is definite provision for punishment and the maintenance of the dignity and integrity of the judicial institution. But the Constitutional guarantee cannot be erased whenever a judge becomes peeved or angered by criticism of his action.

But these states can not compel Ohio, Kentucky, Illinois, Iowa, Nebraska to hold back their flooding rivers.

Thus the problem is a federal one, and it is the duty of the United States government to tackle it and solve it. As a public work, it is the greatest task before the country. Year after year it has been dodged.
Much has been done piecemeal, but the job has never been envisaged as a whole, has never been gone at logically, with the idea of completing it once for all, of adding hundreds of millions to the value of property, of making navigable and safe channels, of employing the mighty force of falling water to generate power. Not until these things are done

RECOVERY PLANS ARE ANNOUNCED BY ECONOMIST GROUP

BY CLAUDE A. JAGGER
Associated Press Financial Editor (Copyright, 1932, By The Associated Press.)

NEW YORK, Jan. 15.—(P)—A group of leading economists of the United States, after two months of interchange of opinion, have agreed on a program of economic action which they believe should revivify business, restore values, increase employment and strenghten banks.

Arren M. Persons, prominent economist, in an exclusive interview with The Associated Press today, said the program had been endorsed by trade associations, congressmen, government economists, farm organizations and prominent individuals. Its success, he said, depended on wide co-operation of important interests, particularly industrial and bankers, and that it seemed assured.

Their program is relatively simple and, Dr. Persons explained, represents the least common denominator of effective platforms on which agreement seemed possible.

They start out from these four general conclusions:

"1.—Though some important adjustments in various elements of the business system remain to be made, the general contraction of credit and deflation of prices have gone far enough.

"2.—The United States can have substantial business recovery without waiting for a solution of Europe's difficulties.

"3.—Recovery is possible, on a sound basis without recourse to monetary panaceas, but—

"4.—The depression will not cure itself, and requires prompt, intelligent, and vigorous action."

Recommend Further Action.

Then the economists recommend the following steps:

"1.—The enactment of the bill establishing the reconstruction finance corporation to deal more effectively with emergency situations.

"2.—Proper economy in municipal, state, and national budgets, and increased taxation;

"3.—A Liberal reserve policy, designed to check credit contraction and encourage some expansion;

"4.—A central banking policy co-operating with the reserve banks in checking credit decreases and encouraging increases, including:

(A) An increase in sound investments.

(B) Cooperation in aiding necessary treasury financing.

(C) Borrowing from federal reserve banks when necessary to meet the needs of the country.

They express the conviction that prosecution of these policies is sound, involves no important risks and should exert powerful pressure towards these four ends:

"1.—Stopping the downward trend of prices.

"2.—Returning hoarded money to the banks.

"3.—Restoring the normal value of securities, and beginning of "business recovery."

Dr. Persons, consulting economist and former professor of economics at Harvard, is chairman of the group.

AL SMITH SAYS HE'S
'OVER DRAFT AGE';
AND NOTHING MORE

BOSTON, Jan. 12.—(P)—Alfred E. Smith says he's "over draft age" and beyond that refuses to commit himself on the question of his candidacy for the democratic presidential nomination.

New York's former governor smiled contentedly as Daniel J.
Gallagher, former U. S. attorney, jumped to a chair during the Victory Dinner of Massachusetts democrats last night to caution
"AI" to go slow with his plans
"because the party's going to draft you."

Smith urged 2,000 wildly-cheering democrats to join in a united effort to restore their party to power by abandoning their traditional custom of finding fault with the republican party and launching forth on a constructive program of their own.

Smith's route to success in the coming presidential election would be by an open declaration for re-submission of the prohibition issue to a national vote. He advocacy of a gigantic federal bond issue for expansion and improvement of public works and a consolidation of the forces of the party through the nation on an all the year working basis.
He maintained that relief for the unemployed could be found in his suggested federal bond issue.

PONDING-JETTING
ON TWO HIGHWAYS
NEAR COMPLETION

Ponding and jetting on the North Beaton street tie-in from the Corsicana-Emhouse lateral road near the L. T. Davis corner to Highway 75 via the new over-pass at the Southern Pacific Lines crossing, has been completed and some of the cutting back grading preparatory to pavement has been done by the Standard Paving Company of Fort Worth. George W.
Boyd, county commissioner, announced Sunday that the 18-foot pavement of this tie-in road is scheduled to start as soon as the weather conditions will permit.

Ponding and jetting of the Corsicana-Ward Bridge road is about completed by the Fort Worth concern, and this road is scheduled to be paved, 18 feet wide, as soon as the North Beaton street tie-in has been completed.

and done by the Nation according to a complete and comprehensive plan, will the Mississippi be harnessed for the use of the country.

Children Hair Cuts 15c
LXL BARBER SHOP
121 North Beaton Street

Freestone County
P.T.A. Will Hear
State Board Head

FAIRFIELD, Jan. 16.—(Sp.)— Mrs. Oscar Johnson of Dew announces that State Superintendent
S. M. N. Marrs, of Austin, will be the chief speaker at the next meeting of the county P. T.
A. to be held at Dew on Feb. 1.
The P. T. A. will again sponsor the Humane Poster contest for this year, the only change in the rules being in size. Posters may be any size not to exceed 22x28 inches.

SIDNEY K. BRIETZ
ELECTED PRESIDENT OF COUNTRY CLUB

Sidney K. Brietz was named president of the Corsicana Country club at the annual meeting of the stockholders of that enterprise Thursday evening in the club house, succeeding W. P.
Brown. Other officers include R.
L. Hamilton, vice president, and Walter H. Fondley, secretary-treasurer.

The new directors were named to succeed three men whose terms expired this year, as follows: R.
L. Hamilton, M. E. Woodrow, and C. L. Terry. Retiring members of the board are Fred M. Allison, W.
C. Strode, and M. H. DeWitt.
Holdover members of the board include S. K. Brietz, W. P. Brown, Charles Holloway, Jack Cunningham, C. S. Stroud, and J. M.
Kerr.

President Brown and C. S.
Stroud, chairman of the finance committee, were highly complimented by the stockholders on their administrative efforts during the past year that has resulted in a marked improvement in the financial condition of the club.
The officers report that the institution made considerable progress during the past year, and the annual report showed the institution to be in good condition to start the new year.

DEMOCRATS WARNED TO NOMINATE HIGH CLASS CANDIDATE

WASHINGTON, Jan. 15.—(P)— Democrats were advised today by F. Scott McBride, Anti-Saloon League superintendent, that if they would avoid staggering over a whiskey bottle and will nominate an outstanding, high class constitutionalist, they have a good chance to win the 1932 election.
In his report before the board of directors of the League, he called on the organization to "wake up and fight" during the coming ten months.

"We might as well face the fact that there will be no landslide in 1932 in favor of prohibition," he said in 1928, McBride said in his report.

"The contest will be in territory where the wets have the advantage on account of the prevailing negative business situation."

McBride said no previous results would make secure prohibition at the election of 1932 and 1936.

He told the board a congressional test so far had been mostly on matters of enforcement rather than prohibition. He warned
"even a majority of 221 in both houses of congress does not mean absolute security."

He urged a vigorous fight against resubmitting the proposition question to the state.

Surviving Member
Last Man Club III

CHAMBERLAIN, S. D., Jan. 16.
—(P)—The last man of the Last Man's club is ill.

Charles Lockwood, 80, only survivor of the Civil War veterans' group, is suffering from a leg blood clot. Physicians said his condition was not critical but would remain in bed a few months.

Thirty-four members of Company B, first Minnesota infantry, formed the club at Stillwater, Minn., in 1884. They held banquets there annually on July 2, the anniversary of the battle of Bull Run.

STUDY OF PECANS INTERESTING LARGE NUMBER FARMERS

BLOOMING GROVE, Jan. 16.
—(Sp.)—Members of the evening school in Pecan community are planning a day's field trip to several of the groves in the county that have been top-worked or are in the process of being worked to standard varieties of pecans.
In an endeavor to study the problem involved and see the work in progress as it is being carried on by successful pecan men in the county, this trip is planned.
With favorable weather conditions prevailing, the group will make the trip on Tuesday, Feb. 3. A definite schedule has not been worked out yet, but the group will probably visit the groves of L.
G. Griffin in Ellis county, Murphy
Williams of Corsicana, Robert Blackman of Corsicana, and W.
S. Price of Kerens, and others.

The farmers in their evening school, Wednesday night, Jan. 13, studied "Varieties Best Suited to This Community." Of over 100 varieties being propagated in Texas as the present time, those best suited to conditions of this community were narrowed down to eight or 10 varieties. From these 10 varieties, those topworking pecans this year will make their final choice and selection. The advantages of the community standarding on four or five varieties was brought out.

Arrangements were made for two pecan dehorning demonstrations to be held on the farms of L. G. Griffin and Le Gravin, Monday afternoon, Jan. 18.
Monday night at the school building the problem, "Cutting, Preparing and Storing Budwood" will be studied. Those interested in pecan propagation are invited to attend.

Hawkins Re-Elected Superintendent For Schools Of Mexico

MEXIA, Jan. 15.—(Sp.)—Richard
M. Hawkins has been re-elected superintendent of Mexia public schools, with a two-year contract,
the school board has announced.
Mr. Hawkins, who came to Mexia as high school teacher several years ago, has been advanced through grammar school principalship to principal of the high school and last year elected superintendent.
He has shown unusual ability in school fiscal administration.

Mr. Hawkins, a graduate of Southwestern University, is president of the Mexia Rotary Club.

COURTHOUSE NEWS.

District Court.
The jury was deliberating on the case of Tony Brockum vs.
Zack Westbrock, damages, Saturday morning. The trial was completed Friday. It began Monday.
Two boys were sentenced to the state reformatory at Gatesville until they were 21 years of age, and another was paroled to his father
by District Judge Pro Tem B. W.
George Saturday morning. The trio were charged with forgery.

District Clerk's Office.
The following cases were filed:
Mary Frances Lowery vs. Robert M. Lowery, divorce.
Lovenia Andrews vs. George Andrews, divorce.

County Clerk's Office.
The following case was filed:
Stroud-Deckum Grocery Company vs. A. B. Lancaster, suit on sworn account.

Marriage License.
Randolph Gray and Ellie Mae Fortner.

Trustee's Deed.
B. L. Davis, trustee for C. H.
DeLafoese, to I. N. Cerf, 77.88 acres James Pratt survey; 28 acres Jan. Pratt survey; and 5.4 acre William Miller survey, $2.00.
Marie Dressler makes her first bow as a full-fledged screen star at the Ideal Theatre Sunday.
Marie and the redoubtable Polly
Mor

SHOWDOWN WILL BE SEEN IN BIG FOUR LOOP THIS WEEK

HIGHLAND PARK WILL OPPOSE TIGERS: HORNETS VS BRONCOS

Athens eked out another notly contested victory over the scrapping Corsicana Tigers on the junior high school gym floor Saturday night when they won, 38-36. The game was a see-saw affair during a majority of the contest and the Tigers rallied twice to threaten. The locals were leading, 18-16, at the half way mark.

The Henderson county lads forged ahead in the third period when Morris, substitute forward, looped four field goals and Owen, forward counted with three field shots while Trammel and Tompkins counted once each. Corsicana rallied in the fourth stanza when Crowther and Ferrell made five points each. Athens was leading, 9-7 at the first period and 32-26 at the end of the third quarter.

Ferrell, Tiger center was high point man of the evening when he looped nine field goals and two free shots for 20 points. Crowther continued his sensational playing and made 11 points. For the visitors, Owen, forward, made 14 points and second scorer. Some of Owen's shots were sensational and spectacular. He was looped by Morris, Ferrell, turned in some unusual shots during the evening.

Second Close Game. This was the second defeat suffered by the Bengals at the hands of the Henderson county clan, having dropped the first game of the series Friday night, 40-36. Athens remained in the tie with the Denton Broncos for the leadership of the Big Four high school basketball league with four victories and no defeats. Both Denton and Athens have two victories over the Corsicana Tigers and Highland Park has one.

The feature attraction of the present week-end contest will be the series in Denton between the Hornets and Broncos while Corsicana will be host to the Highland Park five, also without a conference victory thus far in the season.

The Box Score. Fg. Ft. Fts. Pts. Owens, f. 7 0 0 14. Browning, f. 1 0 0 2. Trammel, c. 2 0 0 4. Thompson, g. 2 2 2 5. Sanders, g. 2 1 1 5. Hines, g. 0 0 0 0.

Totals Corsicana—18 2 7 38. Highland Park—Crowther, f. 5 1 3 11. Ferrell, f. 1 1 1 3. Wilson, f. 0 0 0 0. Price, g. 0 0 0 0. Phillips, g. 1 0 1 2.

Totals Denton—16 4 8 36. Officials: C. E. Smith, (East Texas Teacher), referee; Smith, (New Mexico U.), umpire; Allen, timekeeper; Moore, scorer.

Denton 32; Highland Park 18. DENTON, Jan. 18.—The Denton High Broncos defeated the Highland Park cagers of Dallas Saturday night, 32-18, to sweep the series when they swept to an early lead in the first few plays of the contest. Denton was leading, 17-8, at the half.

Dittich, Bronco forward, was high scorer with nine points. The Box Score. Fg. Ft. Fts. Pts. Dittich, f. 4 1 0 9. McGovern, f. 1 1 2 3. Jones, c. 3 1 2 7. Turner, g. 1 2 0 4. Chambers, g. 1 2 1 4. Hardisty, g. 1 2 1 4. Maxwell, g. 1 3 2 5.

Totals Highland Park—11 10 7 32. Fulham, f. 2 2 0 3 4. Grinnan, f. 2 2 3 6. Gilbert, f. 0 0 1 0. Rayburn, c. 0 0 1 0. Lee, g. 0 0 4 2. Morrison, g. 0 0 1 3. Oids, g. 0 0 1 3.

Totals Denton—11 10 7 32. Team—W. L. Pct. Athens 4 0 1.000. Denton 4 0 1.000. Corsicana 4 0 1.000. Highland Park 4 0 1.000.

Saturday's Results. Athens 38; Corsicana 36. Denton 32; Highland Park 18. This Week-End Games. Athens at Denton. Highland Park at Corsicana. (Games Friday and Saturday nights).

BREEDLOVE-ROGERS MATCH EXPECTED TO BE GREAT EVENT

Dr. Vernon Breedlove, Kansas City, light welter champion of the world, and Red Rogers, welter-weight champion of the Southwest, of San Antonio, will be featured in the main event at the Jim Williams wrestling arena Thursday night. Promoter Williams announced Saturday morning. In the semi-final affair, Doc Poole, Dawson, and Jack Brown, Shreveport, will meet.

Dr. Breedlove vanquished Marvin Willis this week, making his wins three in a row here, and taking them all with two straight falls. Yousef and McMullen were the two before Willis. Rogers is said to have an impressive record of consecutive wins, and Thursday night's card promises to be an attractive one.

666 Liquid or Tablets used internally and 666 Salve externally, make a complete and effective treatment for colds.

$5,000 in Cash Prizes. Ask Your Druggist for Particulars.

DEMOCRACY OF NATION HAS ARISEN FROM BANQUET BOARD TO OPEN FIGHT FOR VICTORY

(By The Associated Press.) Democracy arisen from a "victory" dinner which had a nation for its banquet hall, pushed its quest today for the $1,500,000 fund to pay its debts and finance its campaign for votes at the November polls.

Democracy's voices—The Roosevelt, Shousens and Smiths among a host of other leaders—sounded last night across "victory" boards spread in half a hundred cities throughout the nation. For the most part they rang with prophecies of democratic success and with condemnation of the conduct of national affairs under the present republican administration.

At Chicago, J. J. Shousen, chairman of the national executive committee of the democratic party, warned democrats against the danger of over-confidence. Success that seems assured in January has been known to dissolve before November's storm.

Gov. Franklin D. Roosevelt of New York was the principal speaker at the New York City Victory Dinner. He urged that democrats continue to fight for the party and the people and he deplored the tendency to "blame all our present troubles on the president."

Another party leader, former Governor Alfred E. Smith of New York, was given an ovation as he addressed New England democrats at Boston. Like Gov. Roosevelt, he avoided committing himself on the question of whether he would be a candidate for the presidential nomination. At the end of his speech there came a voice which said "the party is going to draft you." This was greeted with loud cheers. Mr. Smith stood as though about to reply.

The Smith address centered around an appeal to democrats to abandon their policy of finding fault with republicans and to launch a constructive program of their own.

Speaking at Chicago on the same program, J. J. Shousen, Melville, Chicago, banker who has been mentioned as a presidential possibility, urged the party to campaign on a short platform, frugal promises and many results.

Two democratic senators—Lewis of Illinois and Buckley of Ohio—were Victory Dinner speakers at Columbus, O. Each criticized the republican administration.

No subscriptions were sought at last night's dinners, but the campaign was well under way today. Of the $1,500,000 needed to erase the party's deficit and provide funds for the campaign, approximately $225,000 already has been obtained.

At Chicago, J. J. Shousen, chairman of the national executive committee of the democratic party, warned democrats against the danger of over-confidence. Success that seems assured in January has been known to dissolve before November's storm.

Gov. Franklin D. Roosevelt of New York was the principal speaker at the New York City Victory Dinner. He urged that democrats continue to fight for the party and the people and he deplored the tendency to "blame all our present troubles on the president."

Another party leader, former Governor Alfred E. Smith of New York, was given an ovation as he addressed New England democrats at Boston. Like Gov. Roosevelt, he avoided committing himself on the question of whether he would be a candidate for the presidential nomination. At the end of his speech there came a voice which said "the party is going to draft you." This was greeted with loud cheers. Mr. Smith stood as though about to reply.

The Smith address centered around an appeal to democrats to abandon their policy of finding fault with republicans and to launch a constructive program of their own.

Speaking at Chicago on the same program, J. J. Shousen, Melville, Chicago, banker who has been mentioned as a presidential possibility, urged the party to campaign on a short platform, frugal promises and many results.

Two democratic senators—Lewis of Illinois and Buckley of Ohio—were Victory Dinner speakers at Columbus, O. Each criticized the republican administration.

No subscriptions were sought at last night's dinners, but the campaign was well under way today. Of the $1,500,000 needed to erase the party's deficit and provide funds for the campaign, approximately $225,000 already has been obtained.

At Chicago, J. J. Shousen, chairman of the national executive committee of the democratic party, warned democrats against the danger of over-confidence. Success that seems assured in January has been known to dissolve before November's storm.

Gov. Franklin D. Roosevelt of New York was the principal speaker at the New York City Victory Dinner. He urged that democrats continue to fight for the party and the people and he deplored the tendency to "blame all our present troubles on the president."

Another party leader, former Governor Alfred E. Smith of New York, was given an ovation as he addressed New England democrats at Boston. Like Gov. Roosevelt, he avoided committing himself on the question of whether he would be a candidate for the presidential nomination. At the end of his speech there came a voice which said "the party is going to draft you." This was greeted with loud cheers. Mr. Smith stood as though about to reply.

The Smith address centered around an appeal to democrats to abandon their policy of finding fault with republicans and to launch a constructive program of their own.

ONE KILLED MONDAY IN INDIAN TROUBLE; ARRESTS NUMEROUS

DEATHS BECOMING MORE FREQUENT IN CIVIL DISOBEDIENCE CAMPAIGN

BOMBAY, India, Jan. 18.—(AP)—One person was killed and another was wounded today in the village of Gupar, near Peshawar, when police fired into a crowd of 500 natives who had attacked them with stones after the arrest of six local leaders of the congress party.

On Saturday at Berhampore in Bengal, one person was killed and two wounded when police fired on a mob.

At least two score more of Mahatma Gandhi's nationalist followers, including 14, pretty, caftoon-clad Beshawika girl picketers, were killed by the British government today as it continued its repression of the civil disobedience campaign.

The girls were arrested outside the government mint for trying to prevent shipment of gold to the United States and to England, where it has been flowing in a steady stream recently.

Forty-seven other nationalists, including the so-called dictator of the local branch of the congress, were arrested as they followed the Mahatma's command to make their own salt and while they were scooping full of water from the sea to be boiled.

Syed Abdullah Brevil, editor of the Bombay Chronicle, most important nationalist newspaper in India, and a close friend of Gandhi, was sentenced to two years imprisonment at hard labor for ignoring an order requiring him to report daily to the police.

Seven hundred followers, including two women, were arrested at Poona. A leading Bombay merchant, in an article in the "Times of India" today, called attention to the economic crisis brought about by the nationalist movement.

The heart of the city, he said, has ceased to throb with the closing of the principal markets and the shutting of the shops. The result is a business faced with ruin, because of picketing," the article, which was captioned "Save Bombay!" said.

WINLOW, Ariz., Jan. 18.—(AP)—Six huge army bombing planes, carrying cargoes of provisions in place of explosives, today sought remote Zuni and Navajo villages in the canyons and on the mesas of Western New Mexico as targets for their "food" campaign.

Sixteen larger snowbound Indian villages already had been provisioned by the bombers. The planes, flying at a dangerously low altitude of feet, tossed food parcels at the five tons of food in snow banks near the villages.

It has been estimated more than 20,000 redmen, isolated by one of the heaviest snows in the country, have ever known, faced starvation. Indian department officials in Washington ordered relief sent the tribesmen by air.

The aviators reported to Lieut. Charles H. Burchell, in charge of the flight, that crowds of Indians gathered eagerly yesterday as the big bombers swooped low. The provisions consisted of beans, flour, coffee, sugar, salt and dried fruit.

Ruth Judd (Continued From Page 1) of an argument over social affairs.

Alienist Declares Mrs. Judd Is Sane

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 18.—(AP)—Dr. Joseph Catton, San Francisco alienist, said last night Winnie Ruth Judd had threatened to "get up and tell everything if things don't go the way they are planned" at her trial tomorrow for the slaying of her two girls.

Dr. Catton, who twice has examined Mrs. Judd, will act as chief state attorney.

Dr. Catton hinted broadly that a second person may be involved in the slaying of Mrs. Agnes Anne Le Roi and Hedvig Samuelson. "From all aspects of the case as I know them, almost anything may develop," Dr. Catton said.

"If things don't go the way they tell me, and don't go the way they are planned, I'll get up and tell everything," Dr. Catton said.

When Dr. Catton examined Mrs. Judd in the Phoenix jail he asked her, he said, if she had severed the bodies, as they were found dismembered and packed in trunks. He said her reply was: "I have never even cut up a chicken in my life, doctor."

The alienist said he believed Mrs. Judd was sane and that her strange behavior is about normal for her age.

Headlights Tested BROWN MOTOR COMPANY East Seventh Avenue Robert Whorton, Proprietor Sun want ads bring results.

MAKE THIS MODEL AT HOME

The Corsicana Daily Sun Daily Pattern ATTRACTIVE SMOCK—PATTERN 2085

2085

FAMILY FEUDS IN KENTUCKY TAKING TOLL IN BLOODSHED

NINE DEAD AND SIX WOUNDED IN SERIES OF WEEK-END AFFRAYS

LOUISVILLE, Ky., Jan. 18.—(AP)—Feudal strife and family quarrels flared in Kentucky over the week end and a series of pistol fights left nine dead and six wounded.

A church meeting at New Salem, in the foothills of the Cumberland mountains took four lives but left the death count unchanged in a long standing feud between the Crook and Johnson families. Two brothers of the Johnson clan and two of the Crook men were slain late Saturday in a renewal of a disagreement over the 17-year-old son of the Crooks.

The dead were: Homer Crook, Forrest Crook, Henry Johnson and Earl Johnson. The men fought when Willie Johnson was accused of wronging the Crook girl.

In adjoining Knox county, two men dropped dead in a fight over a duel to settle an old quarrel. One was killed and the other wounded critically. They met 18 miles back in the mountains and a man named Gambrell was killed and Walter Smith was shot three times.

Sheriff N. J. Tipton of Rockcastle county, a few miles away, was shot to death in an argument with Hunter Burchell, a guard at the state reformatory at Frankfort. The men had been enemies for some time.

Hayden McFarlin shot and killed his wife, Mrs. Zedna McFarlin, wounded his brother-in-law, Harry Gregory, and then committed suicide at Frankfort. The McFarlins had been estranged.

Hayden McFarlin shot and killed his wife, Mrs. Zedna McFarlin, wounded his brother-in-law, Harry Gregory, and then committed suicide at Frankfort. The McFarlins had been estranged.

Noah Johnson and Willie May Adkins disagreed on the street at Heller, Pike county, and both were shot in the pistol play that followed. Johnson was wounded seriously.

ONLY SIX DAYS IS REQUIRED TO BREAK MORPHINE HABIT

ITHACA, N. Y., Jan. 18.—(AP)—Six days to break a narcotic habit, this is the claim of the first trial of a new remedy discovered at Cornell university.

The results of this case, a man who had taken morphine for 16 years, are to appear in the proceedings of the National Academy of Sciences. They are reported by Wilder D. Bancroft, Ph. D.; Robert S. Gutsell, M. D., and John E. Rutzler, M. D.

The new treatment is based on a discovery at Cornell under research of the Heckscher foundation for the advancement of science, that the craving for narcotics which follows ordinary stopping of the drug is due to an accumulation of sodium in the brain and nerves.

This thickened condition is resily the "habit," according to the Cornell experiments. Normally the coagulation is likely to disappear if left to itself but occurs very slowly and with painful nervous disturbances.

HONOLULU, Jan. 18.—(AP)—J. Van Fleet, 32 of Hono, was drowned yesterday in Brushy Creek near Yaukum. He had been working as a grading contractor on the highway between here and Kaneohe. It was believed he slipped and fell into deep water.

MERCHANTS PAGEANT AND STYLE SHOW IS ATTRACTIVE AFFAIR

STEP-BY-STEP INSTRUCTION DIAGRAMS GIVEN WITH THIS PATTERN

By ANNE ADAMS

This smart, well cut smock has cleverly styled pockets that make it quite unusual in appearance. The collar, too, is most becoming above the double breasted closing of the garment. Tucks at the shoulders, front and back, give ample ease as well as a trimming note. The sleeves are comfortably full and held at the wrists with a snug band. There are any number of good looking suitable prints in cretonne, broadcloth, chambray and rayon.

Pattern 2085 is obtainable only in sizes 14 to 20 and 32 to 46. Size 16 requires 3 1/2 yards of 36 inch fabric.

Send Fifteen Cents (15c) in coins or stamps (not preferred), for each pattern. Write plainly your name, address and style number. Be sure to state size wanted.

The New Spring Fashion Catalogue is now ready. It contains 32 pages of chic, authentic Anne Adams styles for adults and children. The newest frocks for afternoon, evening and sports wear, exquisite lingerie, attractive house dresses and adorable kiddie models are featured—all personally chosen by Anne Adams and all fashionable, practical and easy and inexpensive to make. Send for your copy. Price of Catalog, Fifteen Cents. Catalog and Address all mail orders to the Corsicana Daily Sun Pattern Department, 243 W. 17th Street, New York City.

Banking reforms are advocated by Governor Murray

OKLAHOMAN TESTIFIED BEFORE HOUSE WAYS AND MEANS COMMITTEE

WASHINGTON, Jan. 18.—(AP)—Sitting at ease with a smoking cigar and black coffee at hand, William H. Murray—otherwise the governor of Oklahoma—testified before the House Ways and Means committee today to institute banking reforms.

He testified before the house ways and means committee, introduced by Representative McKernan, a fellow Democrat of his state.

McKernan is sponsor of a bill to remove the 10 per cent tax on state bank notes which was presented first about 15 years ago by Murray when he was a house member.

The bill seeks to repeal the law in order that the so-called "Scotch" banks in states could issue notes on stored agricultural and similar products.

Murray crossed his legs—exposing white cotton socks and high laced shoes—and began a detailed discussion of "the central and Scotch bank system in England" and the central or federal reserve banking system in the United States.

He stressed that the constitution empowers congress to coin money, not to issue money, as many seemed to think. He added that since the coining of money had been denied the states and that since the Scotch banking system had been abolished in 1835 the existing central banking system had drained the agricultural regions of money.

"Explaining the 'Scotch system' which is a central bank system, he spread throughout the nearby mining district but communications were poor.

NEW FAIRFIELD BUILDING FAIRFIELD, Jan. 18.—(AP)—Ground was broken this week for a brick annex on the west side of Parker Motor company, building. A coffee and candy shop will be maintained by Mrs. Estelle Jones. It is rumored that the building will also be used as a union bus station.

Funeral Tuesday FOR JAMES BASHAM LONG MEMBER NAVY

The body of James Basham, 32, who died a week ago in San Diego, Calif., is scheduled to arrive in Corsicana early Tuesday morning at 5:30 o'clock, and will be taken to the residence of H. C. Reed, 722 South Eighteenth street. The funeral services will be held Tuesday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock with interment in the Cunningham cemetery. The services will be conducted by Rev. H. R. Allen, pastor of the Cumberland Presbyterian church.

Surviving are his mother, Mrs. Willie Basham, Corsicana; a brother and three sisters.

Mr. Basham had been in the U. S. Navy for twelve years. Pallbearers will be Luther Spurlock, Millard Spurlock, Frank McCutson, Walker Green, Walter Hamilton and Jack Megarity. The funeral will be directed by the Sutherland Funeral Home.

Professional Cards O. L. SMITH DENTIST PHONES: Office 70 Residence 899 Office—Corsicana National Bank

DR. WILL MILLER Special attention to Diseases of Children and Infant Feeding. Offices Over Johnson Drug Store. Office Phone 39 Residence Phone 139.

How to Reduce Colds and Their Costs This Winter One of Family's Biggest Problems Met With Vick "Control-of-Colds" Plan

Actual Test of the Plan Is Offered By Corsicana Druggists On a Trial Guarantee.

Activities Corsicana And Kerens Girls at T. S. C. for Women

DENTON, June 16.—(Sp)—Margaret Daniels of Kerens, a freshman at the Texas State College for Women at Denton, and a granddaughter of Mr. H. D. Johnson of Corsicana, as hostess at a breakfast Sunday morning, January 10, honoring Bernice Jones of Dallas, who was visiting on this campus.

The breakfast was given in the college cafeteria. Those attending were Maxine Barrett, Louise Wamel, Maxine Strawn, the hostess and the honoree.

The breakfast was given in the college cafeteria. Those attending were Maxine Barrett, Louise Wamel, Maxine Strawn, the hostess and the honoree.

The guests for the dinner were Maxine Barrett, Louise Wamel, Margaret Daniels, Mary LaFont, and Mary Perry.

Anna Mae Young, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. F. R. Young of Corsicana, and Frank King, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. F. R. Young of Corsicana, both students at the Texas State College for Women (C.S.W.), were two of the ten girls picked to model the uniforms to be pictured in the uniform bulletin of this college of 1932.

Miss Young modeled the blue shaker-knit sweater and beret, which are part of the underclassman uniform. Miss King modeled the dark coat and hat, also part of the uniform.

Other girls who modeled the uniforms were Frances Murchison, Beatrice McKinney, Sarah Tipton, Doris Williford, Louise Ritchey, Audine Pruitt, Beverly Crump and Ruth O'Hara.

Frances Nell Halley, Anna Mae Young, and Frank King, all of Corsicana and students in the Texas State College for Women (C.S.W.), were the first in a program of dancing presented by the department of physical education at this college on Tuesday night, January 12th.

The dances in which Miss Halley, Miss Young, and Miss King took part were of an interpretive character, the first being an analysis of the music to an American rural ballad, and the second a presentation of a Shubert waltz.

Other numbers on the program were presented by members of the classes in natural dancing, tap dancing and folk dancing.

Anna Mae Young had as her guests on Monday, January 11, her mother, Mrs. F. R. Young, and her brother, Maurice Young, who stopped on their way to Oklahoma.

Frank King and her roommate, Ruth O'Hara, of Dibal, were the guests of Frances Baldwin, of Denton, at dinner on Sunday, Jan. 10. Miss Baldwin is the Young People's Educational Director for the Episcopal Church in Denton.

Margaret Daniel and her roommate, Maxine Barrett of Strawn, spent Sunday afternoon, Jan. 10, in Dallas as the guests of Mrs. Barnett Critch.

Malakoff Couple Wed in Oklahoma

MALAKOFF, Jan. 18.—(Sp)—J. G. Fowler, son of Dr. and Mrs. J. A. Fowler, and Miss Mozelle Shirey, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Shirey, who were married at Durant, Okla., last Saturday, have returned to Malakoff where they will make their home. Mr. Fowler is employed here by the Malakoff Fuel Co.

Out of Town Friends And Relatives Here For Banister Burial

People from every walk of life filled the large auditorium of the First Methodist church on Sunday afternoon, Jan. 17, for the burial of a loved one and respect to the late Mr. C. T. Banister, and followed the remains to the last resting place in Oakwood cemetery.

Present in this large concourse of sorrowful friends and relatives were Mr. Banister's brother, Mr. George C. Banister of Danville, Ky., and Mrs. Banister's nephews, Mr. Tony Ivey of Kerens and his wife, and Mr. Eric Ivey of Dallas.

If it were possible to comfort the dear, beloved wife and her only son, Mr. Charles Banister, Mr. Tony Ivey of Kerens and his wife, and Mr. Eric Ivey of Dallas, these devoted friends sympathize with the bereft loved ones at this hour of their great sorrow.

How to Reduce Colds and Their Costs This Winter One of Family's Biggest Problems Met With Vick "Control-of-Colds" Plan

Actual Test of the Plan Is Offered By Corsicana Druggists On a Trial Guarantee.

To most families this winter, the high costs of colds are an extra burden. Loss of time, health and money are involved. To reduce the drain of this burdensome family "Colds-Tax" is the purpose of the Vick Plan for better "Control-of-Colds."

The Vick Plan is made possible with Vick's Nose and Throat Drops. Based on a new idea for "preventing" colds, this new Vick discovery is comparable to the use of VapoRub, the modern way of "treating" colds. Each aids and supplements the other for better "Control-of-Colds."

Beauty Chats

By Edna Kent Forbes

All requests for beauty information desired by Edna Kent Forbes column followers must be accompanied by a fully self-addressed, stamped envelope (s. a. s. e.) and two cents in stamps to cover cost of printing and handling.

For the illustrated pamphlet, "BEAUTY," ten cents in stamps with fully s. a. s. e. must be enclosed. Address Miss Forbes in care of this paper.

FACE STEAMING.

When writing about face treatments I must not neglect to mention the very easy method of cleansing the face by steaming. This is rejuvenating because it brings up blood to the face, it is cleansing because it opens the pores and lets them throw off their contents, and it makes the skin fine grained if the pores are closed afterward by using cold water or ice. It also has medical uses.

An excellent method of clearing the skin of eruptions is to give it a thick coating of sulphur ointment, then lean over a basin of scalding hot water with a towel over your head to hold in the heat and let the steam gradually open the pores so the ointment can work its way in. By this method a great deal of the sulphur gets into the skin in a way that is far more effective than rubbing it would be. Personally, I think the best way to finish this treatment is to dash a little cold water over the face to close the pores, which, of course, closes in some of the healing sulphur. Wipe off what is left on the skin, using a dry tissue towel. As a certain amount of the sulphur will work out it is just as well to give yourself this treatment as bedtime.

You can use a similar treatment by covering the skin with cleansing cream and holding the face over a basin of boiling water. An even better method is to wring an old bath towel from hot water and put this over the face, covering it with a dry towel to hold in the heat. When you take away the towel to wring it once more out of hot water some of the cream will come away with it, and also an extraordinary amount of dirt. By the fourth or fifth time practically all the cream will be out of the skin. You can then treat the face with towels wrung from cold water to close the pores. It is important to close the pores every time you steam the face.

H. K. L.—Try filling out the place where the line is by rubbing some cream into it every day. Use finger tip kept moist with cream and go up and down over the line, then across it just as you would

Learn to Do This at Home.

if ironing out a piece of material. Build up the tissues of face, and throat by massaging in the usual way every day, as firm muscles smooth out the skin so lines disappear.

Bertha K.—Stop using enamel on your nails and help them recover from this extreme dryness by rubbing cream into them every night. You should have no trouble in having a polish if you do nothing more than buff the nails.

(Tomorrow—More Diet Menus).

Advertising

—is demonstration of the "Pep" you have in operating your business. It's the best sign of good business and progress.

There Is

no substitute for newspaper advertising that goes direct to the people with a prestige behind it that can not be compared to any other medium.

EMBARRASSING MOMENTS

AND THIS IS THE LAD YOU'D JUST INTRODUCED AS THE WORLD'S WHISPERINGEST CROWNER OF SOFT SAD SONGS.

TODAY'S CROSS-WORD PUZZLE

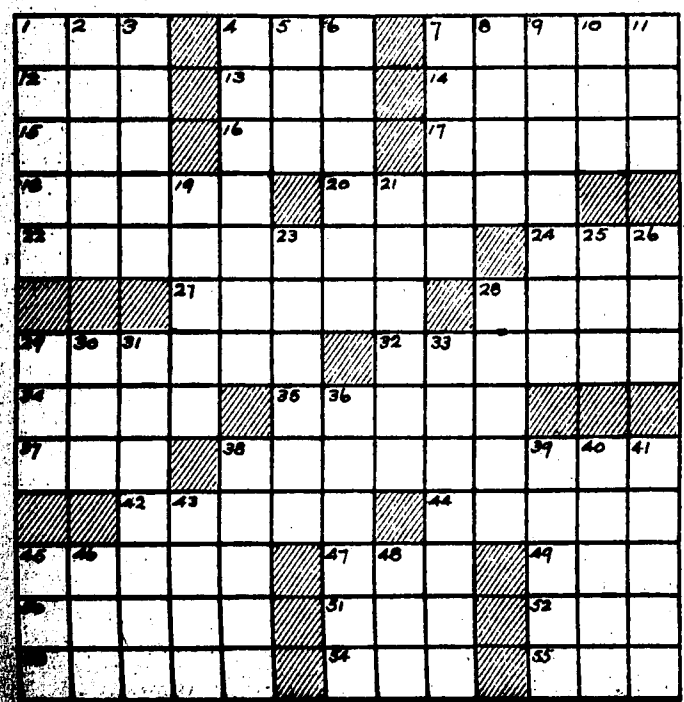

ACROSS

- Lumberman's half-boot
- Disenchantment
- Large bundles
- American humorist
- City in Holland
- Attendant
- Staff
- Careless
- Locations
- Angry
- Chemical compound
- Sawlike formation
- Action at law
- Largest South African antelope
- Masculine
- Strip of a disguise
- Sloping letter
- Peruse
- German city
- Negative
- Synonym for organization
- Shield
- European finch
- Imitators
- By birth

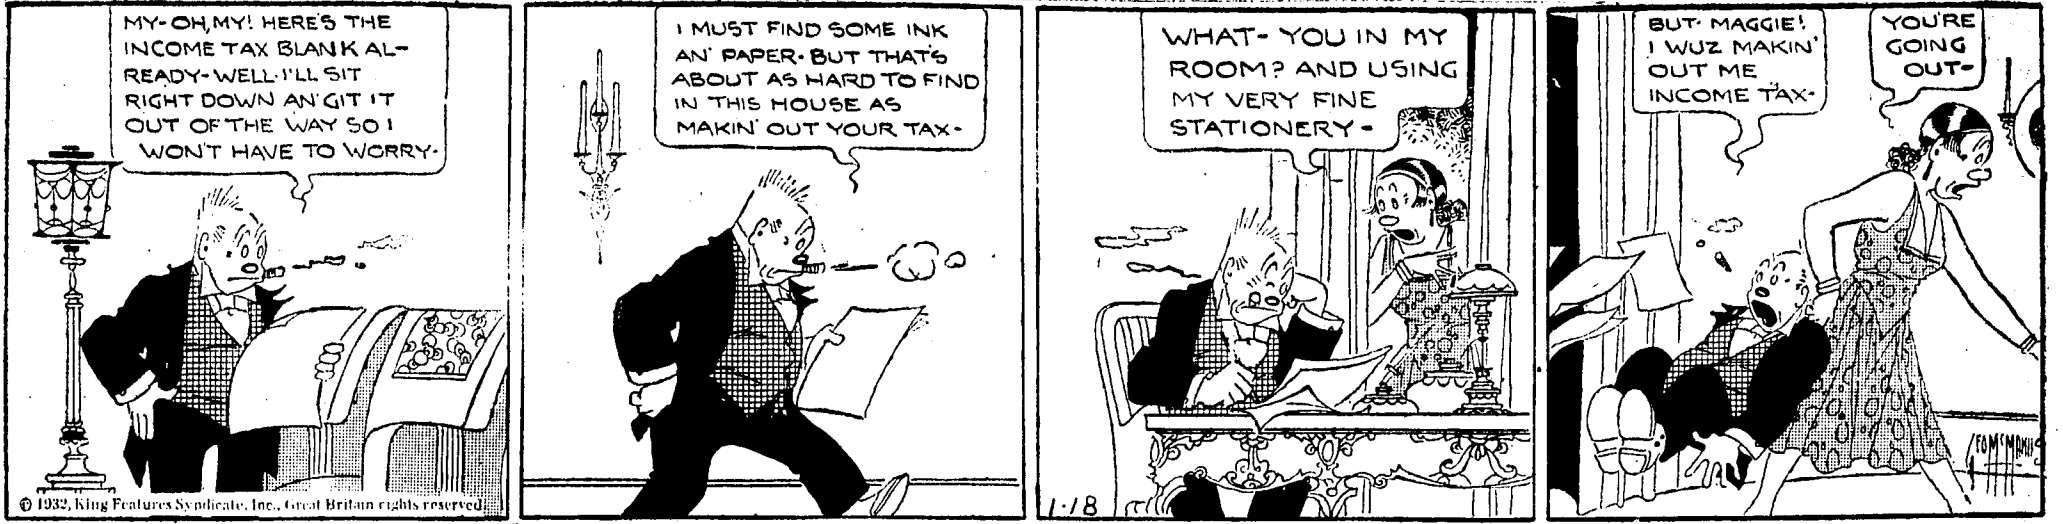

DOWN

- Dry and barren
- Not figurative
- Inhabitant of: suffix
- Their: French
- Walk
- Fashionable
- Those who accept wages
- Talk
- Dry, as wine
- Rectory
- Vase
- New: romk form
- Is of consequence
- Sesawa
- Divisions of a play
- Attack
- Exchange
- Large stream
- Anoint
- Gaelic
- Bird of the cuckoo family
- Play on words
- Devour

1. Rinse SIRE PARA ENATE ENERVATED PUPIL DANAE ELA OR RECENT RANI SEC RATE MAN GE EDOM BE PI ARIA FAVI COST EOS ENFRANCHISEMENT DOE NERO TEAL ABELTY CA PEST MI ARS BATS DIE LEDA ARDENT RA BIT RETIE AIDES ATONEMENT PRONE DYNE USES SERED

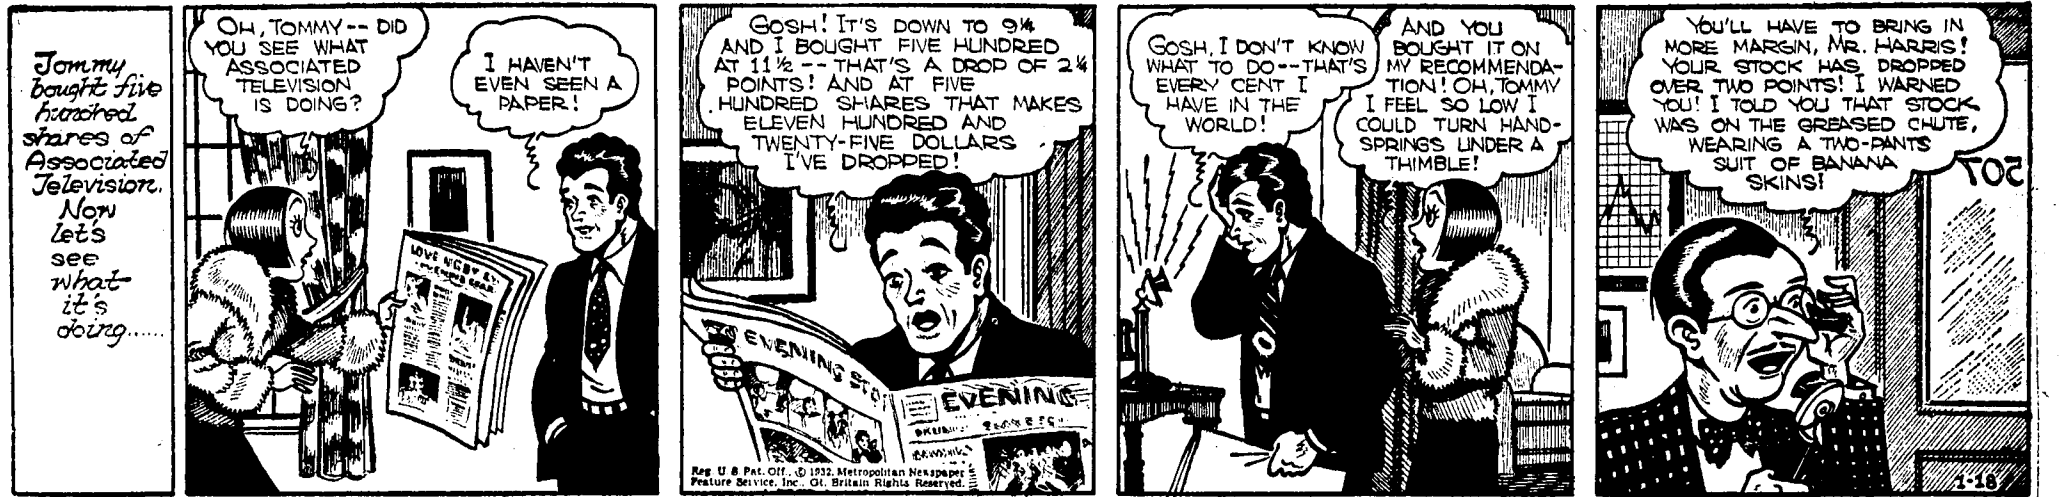

BRINGING UP FATHER...

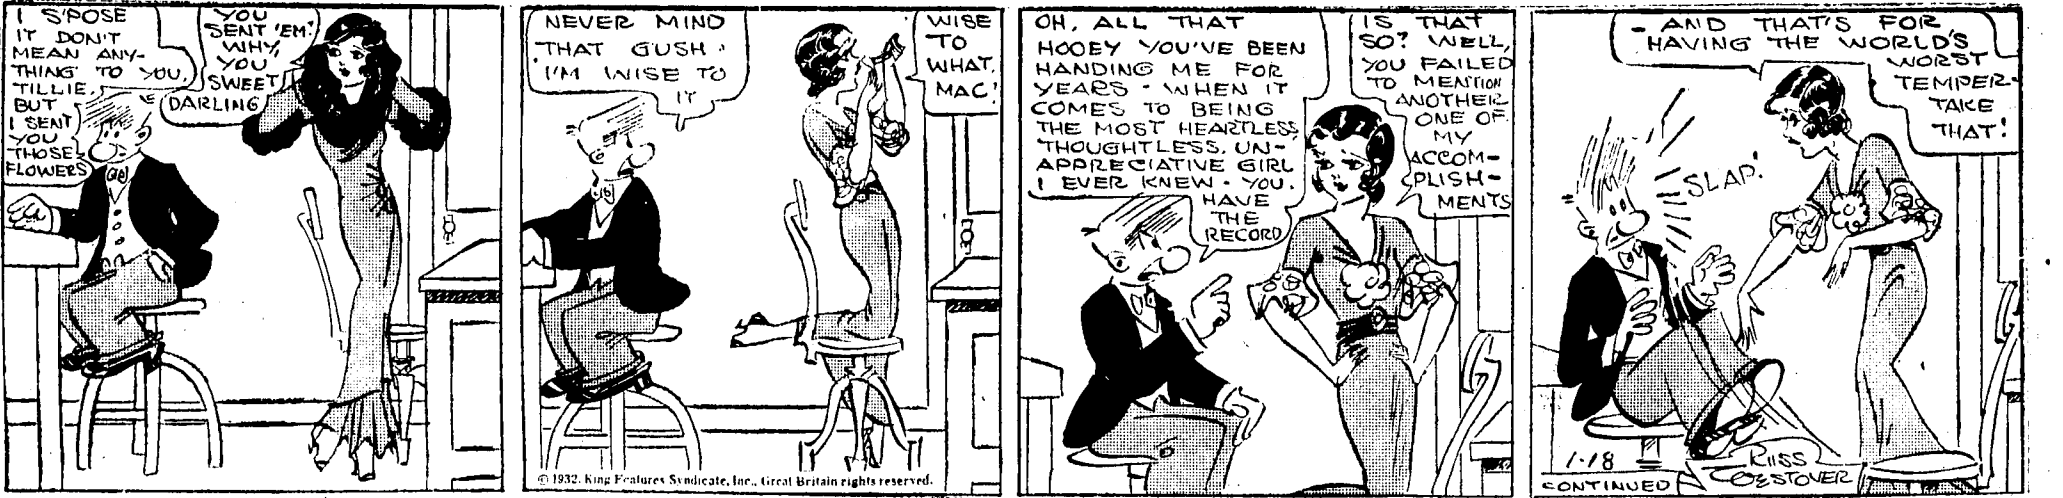

ELLA CINDERS... SLIPPERY BUSINESS

By Bill Conselman and Charlie Plumb

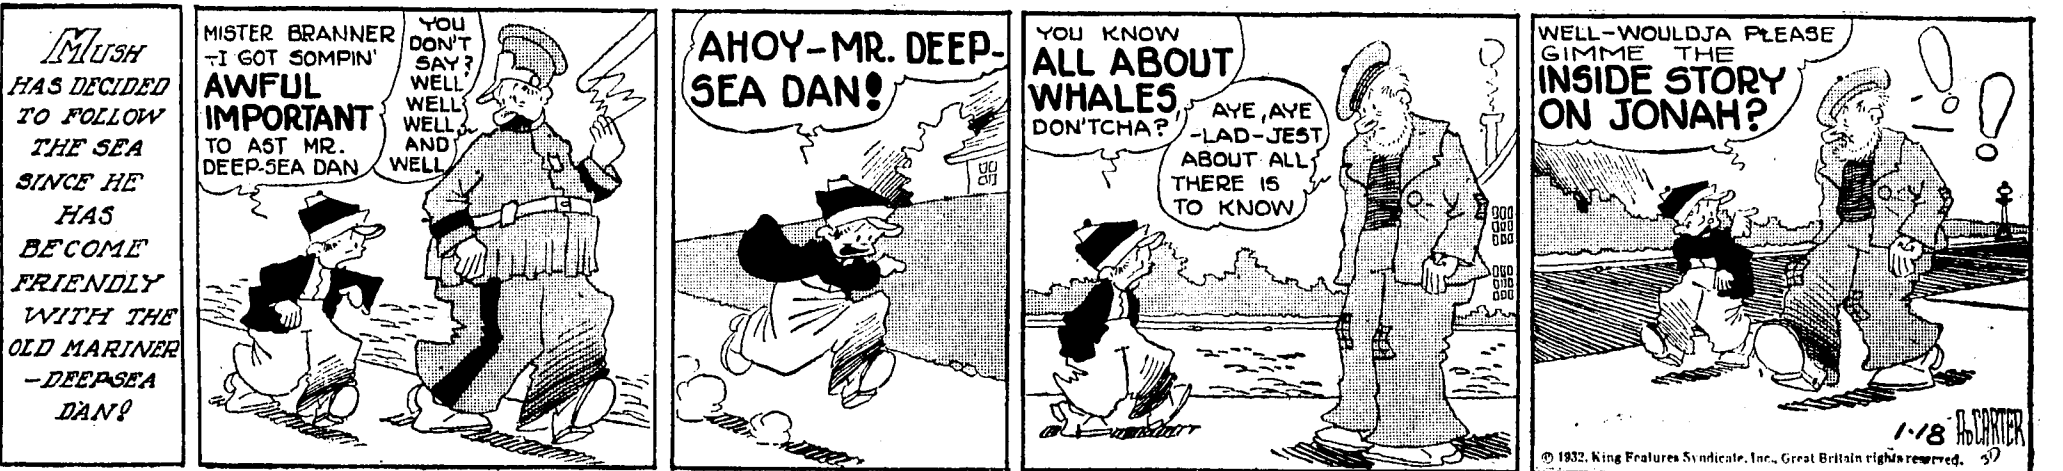

TILLIE THE TOILER... A PAIR OF RECORD HOLDERS

By Russ Westover.

JUST KIDS... JUST BETWEEN GOBS

By Ad Carter.

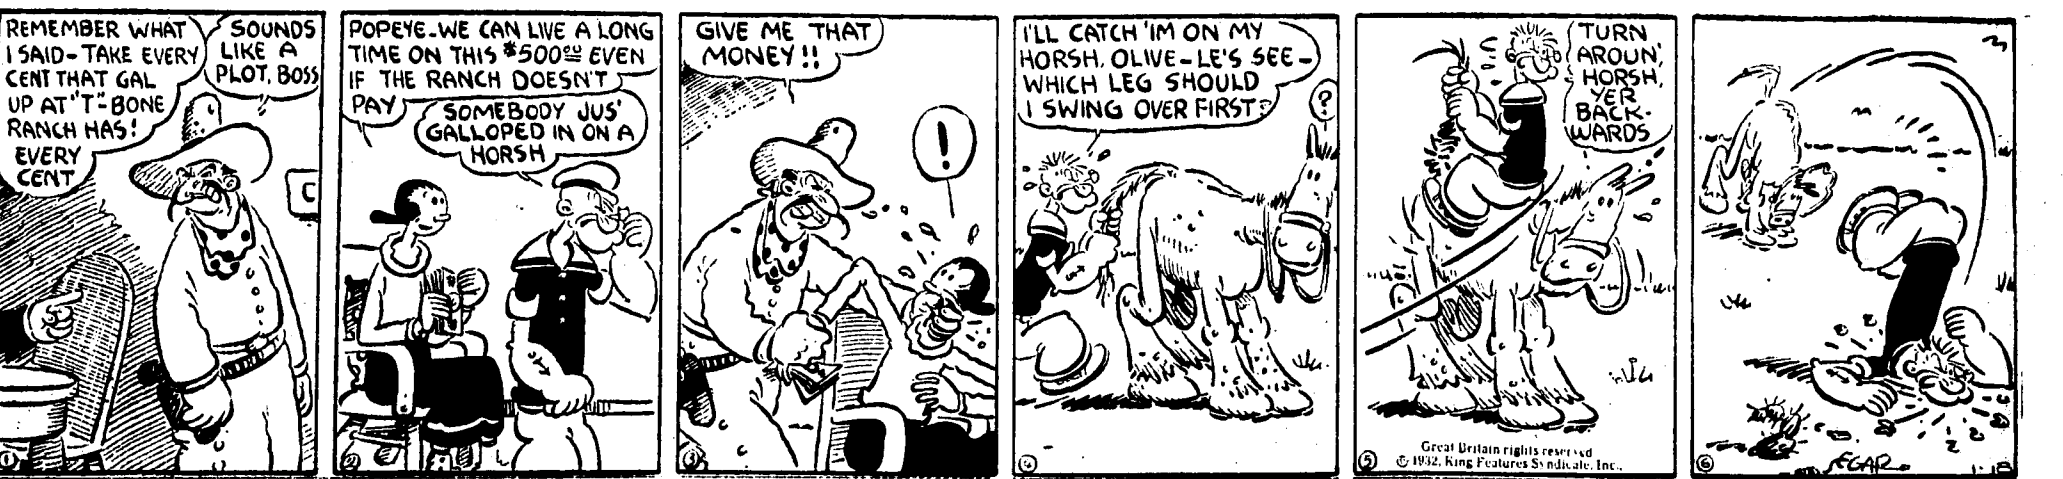

BARNEY GOOGLE-- BARNEY TACKLES A BIG JOB

By Billie DeBeck.

NOW SHOWING—"Cruelty to Animals" TOMORROW—"The Pony Express"

NAVARRO COUNTY DEMO EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE TO MEET

COUNTY CHAIRMAN WILL BE NAMED AND OTHER BUSINESS TRANSACTED

The Navarro county democratic executive committee is scheduled to meet at the Navarro county courthouse Saturday morning at 10 o'clock for the purpose of electing a county chairman to succeed C. H. DeLaFosse, deceased, and to transact any other business that may come before the committee, according to recent communications sent to the members of the committee by R. R. Owen, Corsicana attorney, secretary.

The county executive committee is composed of the democratic chairmen of the forty-eight voting precincts in the county.

County officials and political observers are urging the voters of the county to procure their poll tax receipts and exemptions this year as a "hot" political campaign is expected from the constableness of the presidential race. It is being pointed out that persons unable to pay their property taxes can get their poll tax receipts without paying all of the taxes this year.

A large number of candidates have already announced for a number of the county, precinct and district offices in Navarro county and the political observers all agree that 1932 promises to be a banner political year.

NATIVE OF NAVARRO COUNTY LIVED LONG LIFE ON ONE FARM

BLOOMING GROVE, Jan. 18.—(Spl.)—C. C. Melton, native of Navarro county, died Friday at 7 p. m. after a lingering illness. He was born Sept. 15, 1859 on the farm one mile west of Dresden, and had lived his 72 years and four months on this same farm. Mr. Melton's father, the late Eathan A. Melton, was postmaster at Dresden before the railroad was built through Blooming Grove.

Mr. Melton was well known in Navarro county, having rode over this country buying, selling and herding cattle in the early days before much of the grazing land was fenced. He was a member of the Methodist church at Dresden. He leaves a wife, four daughters, three sons, and fifteen grandchildren to mourn his death. The surviving children are: Tye Melton, Rockdale; Mrs. Edgar Fox, Dresden; Ernest Melton, Blooming Grove; Mrs. Arthur Sims, Purdon; Mrs. Claud Moore, Drane; Mrs. Kirkland Perry, Mildred, and Lill Melton, Dresden, and numerous other relatives and friends.

Interment was in the Dresden cemetery Jan. 16. The funeral services were conducted by Rev. Mr. Schuyler, and Rev. Mr. Jones of Blooming Grove. Active pallbearers were, D. B. Fultz, Will Reed, Clarence Hyler, Lester Clark, Drew Gillean, and Millard Fox.

The funeral was directed by Bruce McCormick.

Glasses
For clear vision. You can think better, work better, feel better in properly adjusted glasses.
—Come to See Us—
IVERSEN OPTICAL COMPANY
114 N. Beaton Street—Phone 338

"Rise and Walk"

—By—
HERBERT N. CASSON

(Editor's Note.—The following concerns America, and Americans. Coming from a British magazine editor, Mr. Herbert N. Casson, it is particularly significant. The editorial tells its own story.)

"You are depressed. You think you are crippled. You are afraid of the future. You are full of fears.

You have most of the gold of the world, and half of the machinery and most of the automobiles and all the skyscrapers of the world.

You have the greatest home markets in the world, and the largest corporations that the world has ever seen.

You are ruled more by ideas and less by tradition than any other people in the world. You have usually done what you thought you could do.

How can it be possible that a progressive Nation of more than a hundred and twenty million people can be wrecked by the speculation of a mere handful of fools in Wall Street?

The prices that were forced too high had to come down. Today, all the prices are too low.

There is now a golden opportunity for every man who has eyes to see it.

Dollars are now being sold for thirty cents. Practically every security in the United States is now being sold at less than its value.

The way to create a fortune is to buy from pessimists. Pay your money and take your risks.

When a horse balks, the balk is in his head, not in his legs. He moves when he thinks he will.

And when an American business man is depressed, the SLUMP is in his head. There is nothing serious to prevent him from making money—if he thinks he will.

When fear rules the world, nothing can be done; but when a man casts fear out of his mind, the world becomes his oyster.

To lose a bit of money is nothing, but to lose hope—or lose nerve and ambition—that is what makes men cripples.

This silly depression has gone on long enough. Get rid of it. It is inside of you. . . . RISE, MEN, AND WALK!"

American Legion of Mexico Presented Big Minstrel Success

MEXIA, Jan. 10.—(Spl.)—Before a crowded auditorium the American Legion of Mexico presented an original minstrel show Friday night that was received with thunderous applause. The entertainment bill opened with a one-act comedy written by Owen F. Watkins of Mexia, and continued with the minstrel with blackface comedians as waiters in a cabaret. The show was a benefit performance, directed by Mrs. E. T. Butler.

Flowers

Cut Flowers for every occasion. Artistic floral designs for weddings, birthday token and funerals.

We can wire flowers to distant points on a moments notice.

Clowe Floral Co., Inc.

Close-Out
Prices

On Ladies' Winter
Coats and Dresses

Dresses
Up to $3.95
$1.98

Coats
Up to $7.95
$3.95

Dresses
Up to $5.95
$2.98

Coats
Up to $13.95
$7.98

Dresses
Up to $7.95
$3.98

Coats
Up to $19.75
$10.95

K.W. WOLENS
DEPARTMENT STORE

Corsicana's Dependable Merchant Since 1898.

Freestone County
Interscholastic League Elects

TEAGUE, Jan. 18.—(Spl.)—A meeting of all the teachers of Freestone county was held at the home economics cottage in Teague on Saturday, Jan. 16, for the purpose of organization for the interscholastic league work.

The following officers were elected: Director-General, P. D. Browne of Fairfield; director of declamation, Mary Grace Lott; director of debate, Mr. Moody of Cotton Gin; director of extemporaneous speech, Miss Lillie Holman of Donie; director of spelling, G. C. Gregory of Teague; with Miss Elizabeth Watson of Mt. Zion and Miss Jewell White of Dew as assistant directors; director of essay, H. R. Lively of Streetman; director of rural schools, Leroy Emmons of Shanks; director of athletics, E. P. Pearson of Wortham; director of music memory, Mrs. Otis Cain of Teague; director of art, Miss Alta Mae Nicholas of Freestone.

P. D. Browne made a talk on the defects and weaknesses of the interscholastic league meet, also mentioning the advantages of the meet. He outlined the work for the coming meet.

The dates for the meet were set for March 18 and 19, and March 25 and 26.

A meeting of the executive committee will be held in Teague on Saturday, Jan. 30, at which time a program for the meet will be made.

At a meeting of all the basketball coaches of Freestone county, the dates for playing off the tournaments toward settling the county championship were set. The first tournament will be held on Jan. 30 in Teague. A team has to be defeated twice before it is out of the running. After the first round, winners will play winners and losers will play losers.

The teams that will enter the county championship race are: Fairfield, Wortham, Streetman, Donie, Kirven, Freestone, Shanks, Cotton Gin, and Dew.

Girl Robbed And Thrown From Truck

A white girl, said to reside in Houston is in the P. and S. hospital and is reported to have been robbed of $12 by two white men operating a cotton truck and thrown from the truck near Streetman at an early hour Monday morning.

According to information available, the girl is supposed to have boarded the cotton truck at Ennis. She was brought to the local hospital in the Sutherland ambulance early Monday morning after she was discovered on the highway near Streetman. Her condition is not regarded as serious and is expected to return to her home in Houston late Monday.

Error Corrected Regarding Opening Date School Semester

KINGSVILLE, Jan. 18.—(Spl.)—An erroneous notion concerning the date for the opening of the Spring semester of Texas A. & I. College of Kingsville, seem to be wide-spread. The opening date for the second semester is January 25, 1932. New students may enter at any time.

Miss Edith Cousins of the sociology department, and Miss Frances Alexander of the English Department, who are returning from their tour around the world, will resume their work with the opening of the spring semester.

GREW IS SELECTED AS AMBASSADOR TO TOKYO BY HOOVER

WASHINGTON, Jan. 18.—(P.)—Joseph C. Grew of Hancock, N. H., ambassador to Turkey since 1927, has been determined upon by President Hoover as the next ambassador to Tokyo.

Grew is to succeed W. Cameron Forbes who is expected to resign his post in Japan before long although officials are anxious that he remain for the present in view of the delicate Manchurian situation.

Grew is a "career man" has spent practically his entire life in the diplomatic service, negotiated a treaty with Turkey back in 1923, has attended various important conferences and represented the United States in responsible posts.

As his successor at Ankara, capital of Turkey, is being mentioned Jefferson Caffery, now minister to Colombia, also known as an able diplomat. For the still more important vacancy coming in the spring, the London ambassadorship, former Senator Lawrence C. Phipps of Colorado, is being strongly advocated. He would succeed Charles G. Dawes, who has announced his intention of resigning before even the Geneva general conference on disarmament is over. He is chairman of the American delegation at that party.

Infant Buried In Midway Cemetery

An infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Steele of Purdon died Sunday and interment was made in the Midway cemetery Monday afternoon at 4 o'clock.

Surviving are the parents.

The funeral was directed by the Corley Funeral Home.

Deaths Last Night

(By The Associated Press.)
Chicago—John A. Mahafey, 59, former president of the Illinois Pharmaceutical Association.
Chicago—John K. Lawler, 69, republican leader and former sanitary district trustee.
London—Captain R. R. Henderson, 56, Conservative member of Parliament.
London—The Right Rev. Charles Gore, 79, former Bishop of Oxford, and one of the most famous British theologians.
Dover, N. J.—Paul Center, 72, retired hosiery manufacturer and philanthropist.
Havana, Cuba—Dr. Juan M. Cabada, 55, president of the National Conservative party.

Several Business Changes in Malakoff

MALAKOFF, Jan. 18.—(Spl.)—Geo. B. Thompson, one of the oldest merchants in Malakoff, sold out last week to Dan Gentry and Willis G. Beard sold out to Dodge Gentry.

The big store of Dan Gentry was sold last week to A. L. Kirby & Sons here, who will concentrate the three big store into one, after putting on a few days' special sale.

Sister of Pickett Man Died Recently In Illinois Home

E. L. Green of the Pickett community has received a message from Isabel, Ill., stating that his sister, Mrs. Lizzie Layton, died Jan. 10.

She came to this county from Illinois with her parents in 1876, and resided south of Corsicana 21 years. During that time, she united with the Cedar Creek Baptist church under the pastorate of Rev. Mr. Ellis, and has always lived a consistent Christian of that faith.

Mrs. Layton left to mourn her loss, her husband, three sisters, Mrs. Emma Blair, Paris, Ill.; Mrs. Nettie Barr, Isabel, Ill., and Mrs. Callie Graham, South Bend, Ind.

Salvation Army's Sunday Meetings

Ensign Gardner spoke last night to an interested audience on the Five Fools of the Bible: The Skeptical Fool, The Disdainful Fool, The Avaricious Fool, The Scoffing Fool, and the Christian Fool.

There were smiles and tears in the meeting, and an impression was made on many that will not soon be forgotten.

This was the last of a series of "indoor camp meetings" and the Salvation Army meetings will again be run according to the regular schedule: Senior public meetings on Wednesday, Thursday and Saturday nights, and all day Sunday, while Tuesday and Friday nights are given over to the character building groups.

Banks Closed Tuesday

We will be closed all day Tuesday, Jan. 19, 1932.

Robt. E. Lee's Birthday

Make Your Banking Arrangements Accordingly

Corsicana Clearing House Association

The First National Bank The State National Bank

USED CARS OF MERIT

We have a wonderful selection of good late model Used Cars at attractively Low Prices. Visit our showroom and select the car you want. Our price is low, the value unsurpassed and we can arrange terms.

1931 Chevrolet Special Sedan $625.00
1931 Chevrolet DeLuxe Coach $525.00
1931 Ford Tudor Sedan $395.00
1930 Chevrolet Standard Sedan $425.00
1930 Chevrolet Club Sedan $395.00
1930 Ford Sport Coupe $345.00
1930 Chevrolet Coach $365.00
1930 Chevrolet Coach $350.00
1929 Chevrolet Four Door Sedan $295.00
1929 Chevrolet Touring $245.00
1929 Chevrolet 1 1/2 Ton Truck $225.00
1929 Chevrolet Coupe $150.00
1929 Ford Four Door Sedan $235.00
1929 Whippet Four Door Sedan $165.00
1930 Pontiac Standard Coupe $345.00
1928 Chevrolet Touring $150.00
1928 Chevrolet Touring $135.00
1927 Chevrolet Coach $ 50.00
1925 Overland Touring $ 25.00

Every Car Listed Above is Unusually Good Value at Price Quoted

Main at Seventh
E. W. Ellis & Co.
Chevrolet Dealers
Phone 1248

Edwin Clapp and Stacy Adams

$12.50 to $16.00
Grades for $9.85

Heywood

$10.00 and $12.00
Grades for $7.35

Florsheim

$9.00 and $10.00
Grades for $6.15

Freanem

$5.00 and $6.00
Grades for $3.85

Big 4 Shoe Co. Inc.
EST. 1898